Thread: Nominations: September 2014

Froggy - September 25, 2014, 3:07 pm

Any member that fits the following requirements is eligible to be nominated: Minimum of 500 posts

0% warning status

Has not received the MOTM award previously

Was not nominated in the previous month of the contest

Non-staff member (you can still nominate mentors and ex-staff)

Members are only allowed to nominate one person. A nomination post must contain the username of the member being nominated, followed by their profile link, three of their contributions that occurred within the month, and a reason why they deserve the award. Contributions should be public, and not in group sub-forums. Reasons why they deserve the award don't have to necessarily be threads, but can also be one's activity on a forum. No feedback regarding another member's nomination post is allowed. Any user that violates these rules may be warned and will have their post removed.

Use the following format to correctly nominate a member:

Reason: First and foremost, how does she NOT have it yet? She's even been given the title "Innuendo Queen". It'd be shame to let her not at least have a chance at it. Further, she's well known for writing stories, short stubs, and doing editorial work in the groups or proof reading people's work.

She has continuously worked at writing stories, and helping the members of HF in the Innuendo section. I mean Christ, she has like 5000 posts in JUST the Innuendo section, I'm almost amazed she doesn't have an award for THAT. Perhaps she might when she hits 10k posts in that section. Either way, she helps people without complaint and has been granted a special title by members themselves.

Contributions:HTML Tutorial

Assisting user via Join.Me with Python Programming

Paypal Tutorial

Reason: Clark has been creating tutorials, assisting users with their questions whenever he can (Programming, Website Construction, HF questions etc...), and keeping us all entertained ever since his registration. He's a fine lad and I definitely think that he's a worthy contender for MOTM. Quite frankly I'm surprised he hasn't won yet!!

[HFarm \[Join Now \] - Updated Today - 2 Years Strong](#)

[\[Emotional Support - Relationship Support - Advice/Input \] Look Here](#)

Reason: Yellows, while a non-serious individual much of the time, is a very caring member who cares about his fellow Hack Forums members. He strides to uplift the spirits of all those who read his posts through humor and with sensitivity. Despite being a long-tenured member of the Writers (almost one year, I think), the quality of his articles/assignments are consistent with greatness.

Reason: Icy is a top notch malware coder, which is why most of his work is behind the scenes. He's always been quick to help me and any member I've referred to him in regards to botnets, RATs, Java, C, and coding in general. He's been through a lot in his life yet he still manages to be a contributing member to this forum and those who need assistance.

Username: Eeluminati

Contributions:42 Months and a bit on Hackforums

Studio Music Crew - Artist and Band Reviews

Post to PM Help Docs further clarification

Reason: Eeluminati is definitely one of the top most generous and giving people on HackForums. He always hosts a giveaway, if not several at the same time, solely to help out members of the HackForums community. On top of that he offers a collection of fantastic services and is always ready to lend out a helping hand.

HAX ME IM FAMOUS - September 28, 2014, 10:09 am

Another giveaway

And another giveaway

Reason: The reason im nominating - Sam - is because of his many giveaways, him being extremely helpful throughout the forums to essentially everyone and him being one of the most high quality members of this forum. With the ammount of posts he has throughout the announcement and the suggestion section, I think Sam would be a worthy member to win this award.
