Thread: Business Section

Veezon - September 29, 2014, 3:55 pm

I don't think that the monetizing techniques section is suitable for the types of threads I want to post and I am sure many others do. I believe that there should be a section to discuss money making in the big picture, not small methods to make you $10 a day, I am talking a place to discuss business and ideas.

I have no support on this but let's see what people think?

This has been suggested before and it' does not have the userbase for such a section.

Would be very nice to see an Entrepreneurship SF, but unfortunately I have to frequent other boards for that.

That is it, HF needs an entrepreneur SF, would be so nice. If this is denied, which boards do you recommend?

The Enterprise is the closest you can get to that :)

Suggested and denied plenty of times, and again, denied. Omniscient will not do this (unless he changes his mind). Thanks for your suggestion.
