Hit up H&M, Forever 21 Men, ASOS, Zara, etc. They sell cheap 'fashion forward' basics.

shop.undergroundoutfits.com has some cheap, some pricey shirts. But the cheap shirts are from $20-$45 . Plus, the shirts actually look nice.

Can't go wrong with good ol Uniqulo, they have some cheap oxfords worth picking up for the price.
But I usually use that, jcrew, asos and h&m.

Remember to check the quality. Most of them are china goods made to look fancy on a mannequin but look completely awful when you actually wear it irl.

I would suggest going on karmaloop. It has all of the urban style street wear that you're looking for. I have ordered quite a few things from there and I totally recommend them.
