Thread: Phoenix Podcast | Ask us for Advice! | Open for All!

Tokyo ? - October 1, 2014, 11:36 am

Phoenix Podcast What is Phoenix Podcast? Phoenix Podcast is a new event hosted by members of Phoenix, where members of the HackForums community can ask for advice anonymously via ask.fm, and can listen in weekly for replies to their questions via Mixlr.com. If you were always worried about talking here on HackForums about your personal life, you now have the chance to stay completely anonymous and receive feedback from those who love to assist members in their rough times most.

How do I take part? If you are interested getting advice, we are taking questions here: [<http://ask.fm/PhoenixPodcast>]

The important factor to note is that we will be talking/responding via our podcast, which can be found here: [<http://mixlr.com/phoenixpodcast/>]

There is no set format for your questions, however please keep them precise and to the point, it is easier for us to respond to. All troll/spam/toxic comments/questions will be ignored, so don't bother. We are strictly here to assist those who truly need advice, and we will respond in our best possible ability to the given situation.

Questions & Concerns This event is being hosted by: Meso & Nehssa

If you have any questions or concerns related to this event that you'd rather not post here on the thread... please feel free to private message one of us, we are happy to respond.

Thank You! We hope to assist more of the general populous with this event, rather than those only posting in the Personal Life section. All feedback about this event is greatly appreciated and is taken note of, we are always striving to improve and help as much as possible in the best possible way. Regards.

Very nice of you for doing this, I'm sure it will help a lot of members with their personal problems. ? (I don't think I'm good at helping with personal problems therefor I will not apply).

Yumi - October 1, 2014, 11:56 am

Thanks for the support everyone. Please submit questions so we can talk about them over the podcast!

I may or may not have submitted something. ?

Oooooo. Not a bad question Amina, I think we will have to answer yours first. We may just go down the list based on the date in which they were asked. Thanks for your participation/trust in us.

If you truly need advice on a "weird" question, then yes.

VYKTOR - October 2, 2014, 2:16 pm

Well I didn't ask on the podcast because I got nothing to hide or worry about.

I already asked in the Eros official help desk.

Looking forward to an interesting reply.

Anyways, this seems to be a good service.

I'm sure people in Eros will help you out - but we will definitely address it in the podcast. ^^

Eternal & I are probably gonna record this week's podcast this weekend, but I would love it if you guys would submit questions! We need a little bit more.

VYKTOR - October 9, 2014, 11:18 pm

Contacted Eternal regarding some advice & I'm convinced that you people know how to help others.
Great service by the members of Phoenix.
To all the members out there, don't hesitate at all to ask them anything which is troubling you.

If you need advice, contact me or Eternal, or use the ask.fm link. Tibit isn't really doing much for the podcast. xD Wwooops, my bad. ?

I wrote Tibit's name instead of Eternal.
Sorry Eternal, I was just reading a thread about him so it came out by mistake.?
Hope you don't mind.
It was Eternal who helped me out.?
He is a very nice guy.
Gonna follow up his advice & see what turn the events take.

Yumi - October 10, 2014, 11:49 am
