Thread: Help me to decide... Iphone 6, Oneplusone or passport?

SIM-1589588 - October 1, 2014, 1:22 pm

Iphone 16gb is for around 1051 USD

BB PASSPORT 32 GB is for around 800 USD

ONEPLUSONE 64GB is for around 400 USD with shipping etc.

Give me 5 reasons why I shouldn't choose oneplusone over iphone and passport.
Money is not an issue, I am looking for quality and performance.

Speaker??? KNOCKERZ - October 1, 2014, 1:24 pm

DO NOT GET THE iPhone 6, YOU WILL REGRET IT. The iPhone 6 is a shitty version of the Samsung Galaxy... I currently have an iPhone 5, but when i upgrade, i will be getting a 5s and not a 6. So, to answer your question, Don't get the 6.

CreativeFX - October 1, 2014, 1:24 pm

Why the hell would you want an iPhone 6? Get a Nokia, I've dropped mine so many times and it is not broken or damaged at all. Get a tank, not a bendable and easy to break phone.

Cyber Saint - October 1, 2014, 1:26 pm

Get the OnePlus One, not that hard of a decision. Android master race.

'Psyduck - October 1, 2014, 1:26 pm

Never seen a blackberry in ages so I don't know the specs.
But iPhone 6 is good. 6+ is not good though due to its size.

Bugatti - October 1, 2014, 1:27 pm

Get the OnePlus One.

It's the best android phone out at the moment.

Scymo - October 1, 2014, 1:28 pm

Oneplus One is the best option by far, and its also the cheapest. Its a win-win!

samschneider1 - October 1, 2014, 1:38 pm

I think Iphone 5s is better than Iphone 6/Plus.

I suggest you buying BB Passport, It'd be more handy than any other mobile phone.

flux. - October 1, 2014, 1:39 pm

OnePlus.

Why would you even consider BlackBerry?

iPhone bends, if you get the 6+.

????!!?! - October 1, 2014, 1:43 pm

Get the iPhone, it has the new iBend feature ?

Because specs is good. Snapdragon 801, 3450mAH Battery, 453 PPI and 3GB RAM.

You should decide what phone you'd like, from the OS, the quality and the security.

I'd pick iPhone 6+, I have an iPhone 5s right now and I am unbelievably happy with it. One of my friends, who came from an iPhone 5, switched to an Samsung Galaxy, and he regrets it so hard now. The OS is shit, the feeling of a Phone being made out of plastic is horrible, especially when you come from iPhone.

So well, fuck all you virus-infected android lovers.

Alex - October 1, 2014, 1:46 pm

I would go for the Oneplusone, however you might like iPhone better.

Suffixed - October 1, 2014, 1:48 pm

You should probably add a poll to this thread.

Anyways, get the OnePlus One; as everyone is saying, it's the best Android phone out there.

Apple fanboys... lol

Out of these three I would probably choose the OnePlus One.

Krew - October 1, 2014, 1:49 pm

Easy to use OS but limited = iPhone 6

Easy to use OS (less than iOS imho) but no limitations = OnePlusOne

Price & quality = OnePlusOne

Conclusion = OnePlusOne

call from your plastic virus-filled android device, thank you.

Your post gave me cancer, the OS is shit? Na son that's called touchwiz, the trash that slows the OS down. Isheeps these days thinks Android is samsung. Also to add about the plastic, not a fan about it but at least it doesn't bend :)

Touchwiz? The fuck are you talking about. I don't think android is samsung, why should I?

Also an iPhone won't just bend, without you trying really hard, so you shouldn't worry about that. Apple has reports from 9 people, out of millions who purchases the new iPhone. Now please, go play with your cheap plastic, ty.

LOL you know you're a isheep when you can't spot a difference with stock android and skinned trash "touchwiz"

Here a simple youtube search can help you with this

Damn than the Iphone 6 is some ugly phone after all it looks like a copy of the HTC One. Also the UI changed, after the kitkat update it looks like this OP, it is all personal opinion. If you feel like the OnePlusOne is the best for your money get it.

OnePlus one! Is not difficult to choose between those three :)

R?eece? - October 1, 2014, 3:29 pm

ONEPLUSONE OR SAMSUNG OR HTC 1 M8

IPhones suck dongers

420 Blaze It - October 1, 2014, 3:29 pm

One Plus One is the best so far, but I'm waiting for the Nexus.

ImJustPro - October 1, 2014, 4:55 pm

I've just discovered the OnePlus One from this thread - and I must say this is remarkable. Most likely my next phone. I'd recommend it.

Pavilion - October 1, 2014, 4:58 pm

Get the OPO. Passport is ugly and the specs aren't as good as the OPO I believe. iPhone 6 isn't as good as the OPO, but a solid number 2 within the phones you mentioned.

LovelyLad - October 1, 2014, 7:06 pm

well i owned a samsung (s4) before, and i did not like the OS at all, its laggy af, so i switched back to iphone 5s, now i got the iphone 6, and its fucking DOPE, i recommend it.

hacc - October 1, 2014, 7:14 pm

Wow this is the first time i have heard of the oneplusone. Pretty sweet, I would try it out if i were you. I would stay away from blackberry every time they say they have made a good device it ends up being complete shit.

Woe Is Me - October 1, 2014, 7:15 pm

The one plus one is cool and all but if your phone service doesn't support it than its pretty much fucking useless.

There's T-Mobile and ATT but no Verizon. I'm using the Tmo plan with unlimited data (5gb of 4g) and text but 100 minutes. Its only $35 so I guess its OK to get a VOIP app with the cheap price.

sasquatch' - October 1, 2014, 7:23 pm

OnePlus.. I have an iPhone 6 Plus and I'm afraid it might bend in my pocket. Apple received hundreds of complaints about the new iPhones bending in pockets.

rae9mm - October 1, 2014, 7:35 pm

oneplusone , great phone and a great price

hacc - October 1, 2014, 7:40 pm

Have you thought about the Samsung Alpha? It is like a nicer looking metal body S5. It is pretty similar to the S5 except it has 720p display and a 12MP camera instead of 16. But still better than the iPhone 6's pathetic 8MP.

SIM-1589588 - October 2, 2014, 11:47 am

Went with oneplusone and passport. Thanks guys.
