Thread: Point of Canadian PayPal account.

Fredo - October 5, 2014, 9:03 am

What is the point of having a Canadian PayPal account when E-Whoring?

Hayley - October 5, 2014, 9:05 am

They do not require verification and do not get closed/limited that often.

Fredo - October 5, 2014, 9:06 am

Ahh, I did not know this. Good reasoning behind it I guess.

Paranoid? - October 5, 2014, 9:09 am

As the user above stated. Just make sure it's a premier account.

Fredo - October 5, 2014, 9:19 am

Why does it have to be Premier? What does it affect?

Aura Jr. - October 5, 2014, 9:21 am

I was also wanting to know this, but Hayley for answering.

Actually if you don't have a VPN which is located in Canada you will get limited pretty easy but if you do, you still got some hopes. I usually create some more and let them stay there for a good amount of time and then I'll use them.

I don't use a vpn and nothing has happened to mine yet, but maybe its because Sometimes I do use a VPN and sometimes I don't? Idk but I haven't been limited just have to wait 21 days each time to send a payment -_-

Everything said in here is completely and utterly wrong. If you're not from Canada, you'll most likely get limited and not be able to send money as they detect you're outside of Canada. They're insanely smart, this has happened to me although the account wasn't Canadian, it was American. Only I and my friend have a method to get around the ban.

As for why, they don't require a Credit Card to be linked to them in order to send money. An account from the United States, does.

You're a fucking idiot kid. I don't use a vpn on my Canadian accounts and haven't gotten limited.

Stop calling others information false when you're is even worse.

Thanks Fuq, I was getting worried there for a sec when I read that post.

On other terms, I was wondering if I have to verify my Canadian Paypal or not?

No you don't need to verify anything but your email.

Fredo - October 5, 2014, 10:47 am

Alright thanks for the help! Highly appreciate as I am getting into E-Whoring.

Assets - October 5, 2014, 10:49 am

They get limited less often and have less laws to abide to. ?

VPNs won't work, I didn't say you're guaranteed to get limited, just the possibility is there and is 99.9% imminent, especially with large amounts of cash flow like I generate. I know a method which you'll never know to:

- 1) Get large cash flow ($900+ a week) and not get limited.
- 2) To use accounts in different countries and not get limited.
- 3) How to avoid limitation so my account lasts for a good 1-5 months before a limitation happens.

I'm better than you.

I make 300-500$ a day not doing anything.

That's about $2,100-$3,500 a week doing nothing.

I'm better than you.

when you attempt to send money or when you sign up? because I have only verified my email and no need for cc or bank acc. once you login after making the acc just hit the paypal logo should take you to overview.
