Yep I'm a cheap hacker :P

Briesanji - October 7, 2014, 1:57 pm

Netsparker , acunetix , nikto there are a bunch of scanner

get rekt scrub - October 7, 2014, 2:15 pm

Yeah but there paid are there any that are free?

mihai3030 - October 7, 2014, 7:44 pm

nikto is free - it comes with kali (linux)

uscan as well

and there are 2 more i can't recall now but you will find it in kali

Depends on how many exploits are loaded into it.

If you really want to use a free one then go with nikto.

If you're looking for an automated scanner/tool to hack websites quickly without doing anything yourself. You could use SQLMap to carry out any injections + Acunetix to scan.

The thing you did there.. I see it.

adriancs35 - October 8, 2014, 7:38 am

Just get the cracked version of acunetix...
