So I recently started doing YouTube again and this is all legit earnings no boosting or anything.

I'm joking but I'm glad to be back doing YouTube again because I really missed it while in basic training

As always have a good day,

Congrats man, keep it up. I wish I could get back into. I made gaming videos for over 3 years and made a decent chunk of change at it but just can't seem to get into it anymore.

This might be one of the first legitimate earnings threads. Congrats on getting back to it.

Yeah thanks guys!

Once my training ends in november I will be able to upload constantly and get more of a fan base to actually watch my videos
