Thread: Is Scamming An Acceptable Topic Here?

RyLaxKid13 - October 9, 2014, 11:15 am

Sup guys.

I have a way to make money off OSRS by taking people's money.
And since gold prices are so high, the profits are visual..

Is this type of talk allowed? If not I will immediately delete this thread.
Rules say: No talk about account stealing.
Nothing about scamming/taking peoples items.

botingisfunny - October 9, 2014, 11:22 am

I've seen a lot of luring posts here before so I believe it's allowed.
It's frowned upon though, so you'll probably get some hate, but it's whatever.

scamming in rs in my eyes is a good thing

it teaches a generation that "if it's too good to be true, then it probably is"

RS307GoldShop - October 9, 2014, 1:56 pm

I would like for you to elaborate! Thanks!

I'm sure that's exactly what you're thinking when you're stealing from kids.

It's no one's fault they're stupid? I'm sorry if I go against you but I would benefit anyway from a stupid person without doing any physical harm to them.

Enjoying these replies xD

Anyways recently I've been gaining access to accounts and taking wealth, then exiting their accounts.

Note: I take the gold and anything worth over 500k.
What's your opinion on this?

Everyone has their own opinion.

If a blind guy walks into a door, it's his fault because he wasn't smart enough to put out his walking stick thing, right? But you're still going to run over and see if he needs help.

A blind guy has a physical disability, being a retard isn't a disability.

I remember the good old days of Runescape scamming.

Trust Games.

Flower Games.

Honestly, scamming is a part of this game, I got rich off of it in two days.

Just don't scam people on Hack Forums, and you should be good ?

"Being a retard isn't a disability."? Well it is actually, but being stupid on the other hand....

Yep. You just made my night.

You aren't even able to delete the thread. You have to be UB3R or higher to junk threads.

Umm....

OP, if the only way you can make money online is by scamming people then you should probably just off yourself now before it's too late.

Hexicidal - October 9, 2014, 7:27 pm

Monetary fraud of any kind is not allowed on HackForums.

Scamming is a type of fraud.

Luring in RS terms is generally a grey area of discussion, luring discussion is fine. Phishing and stealing of accounts, the scamming of RSGP is not.

bugga - October 9, 2014, 7:33 pm

You should just log out and not come back really.

Kenjataimu - October 9, 2014, 7:38 pm

OP if you can make money off of stupid people than you are doing exactly what most business men do.

CRT - October 9, 2014, 7:45 pm

But what happens when karma, turns right around and bites you?
