Thread: OMC and Litecoinage Award Increase

Omniscient - October 10, 2014, 3:41 pm

Litecoinage has gone from 4 LTC to 5 LTC.

The OMC Award was 10,000 and now is 50,000.

Each still represents less than $20 in value so these are still very reasonably priced awards for donating.

Unfortunately alt-coins are not holding their value and that's pretty much across the board. I also fully realize that OMC needs more purpose than it currently has. I can only say that I'm aware of the problem and it will be addressed.

Thank you.

Random - October 10, 2014, 3:42 pm

This should be a lot better for ths site.

Not much money, I agree. Thanks Omni.

brian188246 - October 10, 2014, 3:42 pm

Wow good thing for people that just got their OMC awards today!

I think the LTC award is fine but OMC might be a little up there. Still not that much though.

b?xxy - October 10, 2014, 3:42 pm

Going to try to get the LTC award soon, it sucks that OMC is going down, will anything be revamped soon?

Haste. - October 10, 2014, 3:42 pm

Thanks for the update. I guess we're going to see a big decrease in the amount of people with the OMC award now aha.

Omniscient - October 10, 2014, 3:45 pm

FYI I've not made $1 from OMC. I'm holding a huge wallet and I've not sold any OMC.

Supreme??????? - October 10, 2014, 3:47 pm

Aiming for that OMC award. And glad to hear that you'll be implementing more uses for OMC!

That must be a huge fucking amount dude... how much do you have in total? A couple million?

VRUMM - October 10, 2014, 3:47 pm

I will be trying to make money off OMC now.

Keith Cozart - October 10, 2014, 3:49 pm

Jesus OMC has died beyond belief.. rip bro made $$$ off you

Alex - October 10, 2014, 3:58 pm

Glad to see the price go up! I hope that OMC just don't die..

Why would you be glad to see the price go up? The reason the prices for awards was increased was due to OMC decreasing in value.

steveds - October 10, 2014, 4:01 pm

I kinda wish OMC was removed all in all selling at 100 satoshi per makes it worthless

Eternal. - October 10, 2014, 4:01 pm

I would love to see OMC used on supportforums.net as well for upgrades and other things.

Buffalo - October 10, 2014, 4:01 pm

Really should have bought it when it was 10k. After I get the Emerald Award I'll buy the OMC one ?

Skorp - October 10, 2014, 4:02 pm

Thanks for the update Omniscient, had a feeling they would increase in payment value.

Blazin - October 10, 2014, 4:02 pm

I am pleased to see the prices go up, The coins weren't holding value that great hopefully this helps.

That's not a bad idea actually.

Because I bought the award for $6. That's a steal. Awards should have $20+ in value imo.

Eddie - October 10, 2014, 4:05 pm

Time to invest in OmniCoin so I can be rich. :)

What's Support Forums? Never heard of it.

It is a forum based on support, like a general forum but for a huge range of topics and the niche is getting or giving support. It is an old project of Omni's that is gaining momentum again, and I think OMC should be integrated with that forum as well. Here is a link: <http://www.supportforums.net>

From my (very limited) knowledge I believe it's another forum that Omni is the webmaster of. Kinda like a side project to HF.

Tony Stark - October 10, 2014, 4:18 pm

Let's not get off topic. ^

I think the trade of OMC has started to die down, maybe with future integration and purpose it will start resurrecting again. I look forward to what is to come, I have a nice wallet my self.

Thanks for the update.

Eternal. - October 10, 2014, 4:19 pm

Also, I would love to see some more features with OMC added to the marketplace. That would really help boost its value, sorry for being somewhat off topic.

markeloff - October 10, 2014, 7:02 pm

Why not setting a price for OMC award in $ instead of 50k OMC, I mean just like when buying 3p1c. Same with Litecoinage. Would save you time instead of updating the price yourself.
50K OMC is like 90$ now.

Gratitude - October 10, 2014, 7:04 pm

Damn I was about to buy it for 10k. Unlucky me

labroca - October 10, 2014, 7:07 pm

I was getting tired of everyone just buying awards, I personally think they should only be earned still. The price is still very low, I would recommend ing it up more Omniscient.

This is what Omniscient said..

Also to prevent an Omnicoin crash, you should do something ridiculous and expensive, some sort of contest or something "limited time" only.

Sudsy - October 10, 2014, 8:34 pm

Damn, I remember purchasing OMC at rates like 1:20 back when it first was launched. I thought that the original 1,337 OMC required to get award was a lot

420 Blaze It - October 10, 2014, 9:51 pm

Oh wow, the price increases. Its not much, but if the coins rise...

0x03a8 - October 10, 2014, 10:29 pm

Though about using OMC for stickies?

By doing that, you could greatly increase it's value over a short period of time.

You could also make it possible to buy a PM inbox upgrade?

Income. - October 11, 2014, 12:49 am

For me 50000 OMC sounds like a lot since I donated for the award etc at 1:15 rate haha.

This was a necessary change to keep OMC over the surface. I really like the idea of using OMC on SupportForums I'm sure that it will increase the value.

Zelix - October 11, 2014, 12:52 am

Ah damn, I just sparing for the OMC award lol.

Well, 40K OMC to go xD

BTW: Isn't 50K OMC like $56?

"Each still represents less than $20 in value so these are still very reasonably priced awards for donating. "

Boza - October 11, 2014, 4:19 am

If they have increased those should be edited.

All i can say is that im happy i bought the OMC award about 2 weeks ago :)

Krew - October 11, 2014, 4:55 am

I don't think increasing the amount needed for an award increases the value of the coins. Bven worse; I think it will work in a negative way by decreasing the value. But that may be just me.

The price has risen over the last few days due to talk of potentially buying a group for 1mill OMC.

Vince - October 11, 2014, 5:57 am

Yup, even farther away from the award now. Well, no more award for me. Tired of dealing for a dead alt coin :p

?lien - October 11, 2014, 6:43 am

Crazy how all crypto seems to be losing such value lately. Especially LTC. LTC was trading around $40 when I got my LTC award and now it's less than 10% of that?

Unfortunately nothing new seems to be happening with any coin, no innovation, no value. The unique appearance of virtual anonymous currency was one reason it rose, but now it is just known without much interest. I think it will continue to rise slowly unless something happens.

True but I would also dare to say the whole crypto-currency idea/community never would have gotten far at all had it not been for TSR's formation.

Raddify - October 11, 2014, 6:56 am

I might get the Omni-coin award. I thought it was $50 for it earlier. Never looked into it lel.

Vitani's Mate - October 11, 2014, 9:49 pm

I SHOULD of gotten the award when it was 1337 OMC.. D:

I had the OMC at the time but I was still deciding on if I should of gotten it.. D:

Oh well.

ZuGgY - October 11, 2014, 9:51 pm

Oh damn, seems like huge increases.

Still need to get my hands on that LTC award.

Roger Waters - October 11, 2014, 10:02 pm

I'm so glad that I bought those two when they were only a fraction of that, lol.

Night - October 11, 2014, 11:02 pm

Luckily I got the omc award a couple days ago, good thing I bought the award when it was low.

?Fazzer - October 12, 2014, 4:20 am

Are you fucking kidding me? this is too much

That means

I won't buy omc award for 105$$

Rote - October 12, 2014, 8:36 am

Thanks for doing this, it will add move value to the reward along with the currency it self! :)

Raz3d - October 12, 2014, 8:40 am

I just got the 10000 OMC, but the award is increased, damn. $71 for the award is still overpriced.

Aceman - October 12, 2014, 8:45 am

Maybe Omni will lower the price of OMC award again. I don't believe when he made this thread he was planning to propose the idea of selling a group for 1 million OMC which is the reason the price rose. Had he not made the thread asking for our opinions the price would have never risen. Give him a bit and he may adjust it if he sees fit.

Omniscient - October 13, 2014, 2:16 pm

For now it's 50,000 OMC. As it's increased so might it decrease. Maybe I'll set it to a $ value eventually to avoid the problem.

Radar7 - October 13, 2014, 9:17 pm

I have a quick noob question. Can regular members purchase awards like the Litcoin award? Or do you have to be l33t and above?

Thanks
