Does it matter? it is a public site the only advantage the feds could have with making an account is to trap users or if they were an admin read PM's (pretty sure admins/staff can read pms) either way any one doing anything they could get caught for defiantly does not post a thread about it or talk about it on HF.

That being said I am sure there are some feds on here idk how you could confirm it though unless they bust you lol.

Then why isn't there more members that gets raided ? If the feds really was lurking around on HF then every day we would hear about someone that got raided by the feds.

It's because omni disallowed a lot of bh discussion(ex: carding). You aren't going to get arrested from small-time bullshit(ex:ratting) unless they are doing some sort of publicity stunt or if you fucked with the wrong guy.

Oboy - October 14, 2014, 12:05 pm

Their is a skid on this forum that goes under the name " Omni " UID: 1 no doub't hes a fed.

That actually makes sense. That could also explain the large amounts of accounts that have no posts but are online all the time.

You seem to assume that they have no posts? Why? They could easily go undercover & become a well known member.

You're absolutely right, I'm being stupid.

VYKTOR - October 15, 2014, 3:03 am

I'm not a fed nor have I ever seen one.

But I think one of the mentors or staff maybe a FED.

Ex- F8.

I mean seriously. I have grander plans for my back tattoo. I'd probably get this around my shoulder area, or somewhere on my forearm.

MrOrang - October 15, 2014, 3:25 am

Op is fed. He's just checking if other feds got caught ?

???Michael - October 15, 2014, 3:34 am

I'm a fed OP and now you're caught. You have the right to remain silent. Anything you say can and will be used against you in a court of law. You have the right to an attorney. If you cannot afford an attorney, one will be provided for you. Do you understand the rights I have just read to you? With these rights in mind, do you wish to speak to me?

Shoppa - October 15, 2014, 3:35 am

Grin is just a fag.

I think Omniscient is from the fbi

Tricorn - October 15, 2014, 3:38 am

To be honest feds wont gain much from being on here now, maybe years ago, yeah but now it would simply be a waste of time.

I also doubt a fed would be easy to spot either, you know if they wanted to be known as a fed they would be, if they didn't they wouldn't.

Apocryphon - October 15, 2014, 5:03 am

I doubt feds would put Money Making Ebooks/Guides in their signaturees lawl ?

I even doubt that feds would lose so much time on this forum.... unless it's there is a big fish in the sea.

I would hope the Feds have better things to do than lurking HackForums.

Yeah I agree. Reading through old posts from like 2010 is interesting, you can see a big change in the forum from then and now.

They don't bother lurking because they're too busy persuading all the vulnerable people in to doing stuff they never usually would, and don't want to do so they can swoop in and arrest everyone they set up in a massive plot that they completely orchaestrated themselves.

Hydra - October 15, 2014, 2:56 pm

Omniscient - Director of NSA

Judge Dredd - Former CIA Director

Kidding. But in all seriousness, you cannot tell for certain. Those who say feds aren't cool so it can't be so and so... LOL! Undercover agents will take drugs just to look legit.

gas66 - October 15, 2014, 3:12 pm

After the last time they busted some hackers i don't think there is any feds here as there is no point since this forum turned into an online hang out place for 12 year old wanna be hackers.

Is that the reason you are here?

You have to be one of the two.

Your user title is really frustrating me as it doesn't make sense.

Edit: Good boy for changing it.

Plot twist:

Everyone in this thread is a federal agent.

Sparta. - October 18, 2014, 7:25 pm

Well I'm just going to come out of the closet here and say I am a federal agent. I'm pro-federalism and anti-liberalism.

Right now I'm chilling in this $1,500,000 apartment; at the agency we are discussing the ongoing investigation of the owner of HackForums, Omniscient.

I'd love to spill all the funny shit we discovered about Omni, like him making out with his food in his kitchen and trying to have sexual intercourse with it, but I'll just keep my mouth closed.

NightForce - June 13, 2017, 3:29 pm

Malevolent for sure, he's got a meme posting site, definitely something shady about that... lol nah jk
