Thread: User copied 99% of my thread / Is re-selling my E-Book without permission

Sagax - October 12, 2014, 2:19 pm

UPDATE: <http://prntscr.com/4vl84w>

A user just confirmed he has copied me.

Do I open a scam report?

Firstly, take a look at my thread.

Now, take a look at this guys thread.

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=4486655>

Notice any similarities? I do.

He copied my entire thread structure, most of my title, my "Not included" my "What is required", my "Payment Proof" (apart from the actual link) and most of my "Packages available"

What can I do in this situation, and is he breaking the rules? Thanks.

He could also be copying my E-Book, many leaks exist.

Well he took faucets out of what his list doesn't include. That means he's using faucets. ?

Good point.

I've PM'd a user who got a vouch copy, I'll see if he can confirm.

The other guys thread is gone.. Too bad...

Hope everything gets solved mate

Peace

Yes it is against the rules, but on my end/HF end, looks like the issue has been solved already.

Glad the issue has been solved from the looks of it.
