Thread: [Ping Domain Tool Release + Source \[Ping Domain Easily \] \[Make Your Own \]](#)

Meester - October 14, 2014, 1:45 am

Hey Hackforums! How you all doing? I am just done with Ping Domain Tool. It helps you to tell if the domain is UP or DOWN worldwide.

It is Fast | Advanced | Secure !

Does it feel like shit being a skid?

ToS:

Spoiler \(Click to View\) Please do not sell the source.

Please do not remove credits.

Please do not do shit things with it.

You are free to make your own using this code.

We can remove / change the code anytime.

It would be great if you leave a review about this code / tool.

You should add credits to your program since this isn't your code.

EDIT: You didn't even bother renaming the variables:

That really does not matter. Web request is a public code.

"It is Fast | Advanced | Secure !"

Nope, nope and nope.

"Does it feel like shit being a skid?"

Well...? Do you feel like shit?

Why the fuck you are taking interest in this then?

I think you should feel like shit. I know don't try to overcome it.

What do you mean by secure? How is this secure? And advanced?

Also, I know you're all exited and that, but we can just use isituporjustme.com instead

Meester - October 14, 2014, 12:44 pm

Yeah. This is just a random release. People can learn Web request method from this.

Should've said that instead of trying to steal credits to a useless source code ?.

Web Request is a public code. You should focus on Powerstresser which is a fail rather than passing comments.

Powerstressers domain is blacklisted, it's pretty much used to get PayPals limited for fun. Go cash in $5/m kid jajajaja.
