Thread: Skype Suspension Method | Free!

Jeremy White - October 16, 2014, 5:04 am

Considering retarded fucks are attempting to make a quick buck from this method. I decided to give it away. Please note that this method is not in any form related to the one that I'm selling. This method will probably only allow you to suspend accounts, not close. The method being sold in this thread is not in any form or way related to this one. This method is absolutely shit and I can't figure out why members are selling it.

PM me for a link to this method.

Upgraded members only.

Was it actually the one you were even using? I know for a fact this method doesn't allow closure unless the employee you're dealing with is dumb as fuck.

Here you go.

The links arent from the PM he sent me.

Also as Jeremy wrote "Upgraded members only."

This is for getting his rep up, even though the method is public and have been giving out here before.

uhh those pastebins are VERY outdated, the user validation/authentication process has been abolished from live chat, it can only be done over email now, live chats practically useless nowadays. Unless im mistaken and someone managed to convince an agent in 2014 to validate you over live chat which 100 percent of the agents iv'e spoke to force you to fill out the email form anyways so I feel it's a waste of time opening the live chat. Thats for skype jacking, suspending is a whole nother ball game.
