I know right.

Or when you get a hot chocolate and they think you're not as good as the coffee people so they don't give you a cup sleeve even though it's still hot as satan's balls

Dude you're so fucking lucky. I wish I made my house to myself. Oh wait I do. Everyones going to vacation except me from the end of december to mid january. I have exams so I can't go. But Guess who's gonna have liquor. I'm throwing the biggest christmas party of the year.

First thing I do when my parents leave? I have door knob locks from Amazon and like 8 of them. Put them on the rooms I don't want people in. Then I will move the TV's and Sofa's into the basement and bring out the benches in the backyard because in the winter we move them inside, so I'll put those upstairs. Our walls are getting repainted the week before my parents come back they have painters doing it, so thats gonna be fine. Will be a blast. I can't fucking wait.

Going to be drunk 24/7. I love drinking I drink before I go to sleep because it helps me sleep ;d
