2014 Anime Adventures Secret Santa!!

Introduction:

It's that time of the year again! A time when us anti-social outcasts come together and embrace the season of giving! A time when otaku and weeb alike, put aside their differences and share their love of the Japanese art-form that brought us all together. Welcome my snow-skinned brethren, to the 2014 Anime Adventures Secret Santa event. Remember, it's the thought that counts...unless you're rich.

Overview:

If this is your first time participating, you may be a bit perplexed by this thread, so lemme fill you in.

In this event, members of AA come together and give the gift of giving...gifts. Basically, you sign up with the intent of giving a gift to another member of the forum, the only thing is, you don't know initially who you're getting as your gifting partner, and they don't know who is sending a gift to them. Only those who meet the requirements (displayed below) may participate. Please know that these requirements are to lessen the chance of members not receiving gifts from unknowns or anons. If you wish to participate, follow the instructions below and remember to give generously!

* Participants will be grouped by region to reduce shipping costs where possible.

Requirements:

These are the requirements you must fulfill in order to participate in this year's Secret Santa event: You must have at least 100 posts in the AA section BEFORE THE TIME OF THIS THREAD'S CREATION. Basically means you can't spam AA to meet the requirement just to get gifts.

You must have the ability to send and receive parcels in the mail or have a valid email address where you can receive digital gifts or items (gift codes, website subscriptions etc.)

You must have at least $20 (+shipping/applicable fees) to invest in this event.

You must be free of any scam reports on your account.

Gifts sent must have some connection to anime or Japanese culture.

*Acceptance into this event is at my sole discretion. I look into all accounts participating in this event. Any undesirable members will be denied admittance.

Participant form:

Copy and paste this form after filling it out and reply to this thread to enter this year's event!

Code Country of residence:

Are you over 18 years old?:

-If yes, can you accept adult content?:

Your favorite top 3-5 anime or preferred gifts (if any):

*Gifts you receive are decided by your secret Santa and may not reflect your preferred anime or gifts.

And that's all you need! Thanks to everyone who participates this year and Merry Christmas (or any other holidays or events you may participate in)!!

You can send me something. I don't mind. :)

As for in the Secret Santa, I wouldn't really know how that would work, as there would be an extra gift. Someone would just have to get 2 gifts instead.

That's not even remotely funny, if anyone is planning to do that, that is. The last 3 AASS we had, everyone got something they like. Anyone who plans on being an asshole is definitely going to rekt.

I kind of wanna participate but considering I live in Norway if some guy in the states gets me they're probably gonna have to come up with a rather big sum for the shipping costs and I don't want them to do that. q-q

Also a little concerned for my address cause it's not my own house-

Germany has parcel stations you can use after verifying yourself, maybe Norway has something similar? That way you wouldn't have to share your address.

You could also just explicitly ask for gifts that can be sent through e-mail, like memberships and stuff.

Honestly I'd be much more happy to receive something physical. Sharing my address isn't too big of an issue though unless they actually live in the same country or something. I have no idea if we have parcel stations here, I can check it out.

From what I experienced the last 3 AASS, that is what everyone does (except for 1 or 2 exceptions). I'll get Hole-tan to update the thread to add websites that you can order from, the majority ship globally so you don't have to worry about insane shipping prices.

Spoiler \(Click to View\) This would help people like me who don't make much money participate. I think $20 is fine, in my opinion. You would want to get something that people would enjoy. I'm not saying 'the more expensive it is, the better', but something nice or multiple items are awesome. The majority of the items people generally would want are around the $30-$60. It won't be fair either if you spend $20 on someone and you receive $150 present.

You should be spending generously without breaking the bank, it's a time of giving (or will be), so keep that in mind.

Wouldn't make much of a christmas present if they got it in November though, so I'd rather ship it so they get it as close to the 24th as possible. The problem is that it might get delayed and such, which tells me I should ship it in good time before. I'm just gonna open mine on the 24th anyway though

Tis unfortunate but pairings should ideally be between countries close to eachother or with people within the same country. Shipping anywhere to Canada or USA is essentially the same for me, more or less.

But from Canada to Europe the pricing can be ridiculous for air mail to some countries and if you take it by boat it's 2 months for delivery.

Just saying in case someone gets forced to ship overseas that the recipient doesn't freak out about the present being late.

Pretty sure Black Hole said he tries to do just that, but tbh I'm probably gonna use an international site to buy from, because stuff in Europe is generally very expensive, especially anime related stuff because it's all being imported from the US/Asia. So hopefully I'll be able to ship it in not way too long because it's probably not gonna take any shorter than a month to ship it tweety - November 9, 2014, 8:47 am

No idea why you all are complaining about shipping, if you order from a website that ships world wide, it'll get to them in 3 weeks.

It's not exactly the same experience sending someone something directly from a retailer for them to open a commercial box with invoice on it and everything.

The idea is that it's supposed to look like a gift

If I was to get paired next week, get the item shipped to myself and then wrap it in nicely and ship it to the recipient it's gonna take a very long time :/ Although money isn't a problem I have (others might?) it's also gonna be 2x shipping costs probably.

I agree though, it would be much nicer.

Not necessarily, I've been waiting a month for a package from the US some times and on top of that it's gonna be christmas times. It's a gamble so we should just ship it asap and ask for the recipient to wait until the 24th, at least that's what I'll do

Shipping especially during christmas times is awful. So many customers! xD

In a good case scenario order it from a local / national dealer then package it yourself to ship to the recipient

That's the whole point of a gift option. Depending on the website, they can gift wrap, add a card, any other requests that you have (probably a small fee to go with it). Beat's ordering it to your door (paying for shipping and waiting 2 weeks) and then reshipping it (more fees more wait time). Also removes the invoice and sends it to your email instead.

Inb4 you send some janky anime related item and receive a fig cause whoever got you is nice. Srs saying "I prefer an expensive item!" when the recommended price here is 20$ makes you seem like your in it just to receive something expensive.

How exactly do you quantify post quality? It may be different for each person. Some may only reply with one sentence, but in that one sentence they convey both purpose and thought...whereas another person may take up an entire page and not even get their point across.

Quality is subjective and thusly not qualified to be a hard requirement for entry. I did however put it the subtext that undesirables would be denied.

Today, I received my AA secret Santa gift! Funny story about it, my dad found it in the mail unmarked so he opened it, which is when I got a call "hey, you got an anime doll in the mail. Who is Gladly?" so awkward haha. The figure is freaking awesome, and I really appreciate whoever my secret Santa is. :) Here's a few photos I took:

Yeah, who the fuck is Gladly? Yeah, unfortunately a lot of you idiots forgot that your name is a part of your mailing address....so I improvised on a lot of your guy's info.

It will be coming in your username with HF as the last name. Be prepared.

There are about 20 flats at my address (complex consisting of 2 houses), the last name is the only way to identify who it belongs to. The problem is that if they see "HF" as the last name but nobody with that name actually lives there it won't arrive, which is why I provided my real last name.

Probably the latter, I didn't think of putting my name in lmao. I asked Black to put in half of my first name so that my family will know it's me though, it could turn out very awkward if I was to receive some 18+ gift and someone else here was to open it.

2nd round pairs are being made today.

I have yet to be paired, and tbh if I don't get paired until the 1st of December I'm afraid the gift is gonna be late for christmas eve.

Also I don't mind gifting someone from the US, although the other way around might be a worse option for someone else :/

Due to the shipping costs of 50$ (fuck this country) to ship goods from my place to the destination, I'm rather gonna just have to ship the goods directly with a nice note. Hopefully I can come up with some creative way to make up for just that. Goods will probably be quite a bit over just $20 anyway also, but 50$ for shipping it in addition to the original shipping costs is just outrageous..

Looks fun :D

Hope that next year that I can join!

Yokomoto - December 11, 2014, 11:14 am very nice to see that this year there will also be a secret santa. Last year was very fun and I'm still happy with my gift!

Hi Blackhole,

I will not participate this year just because I haven't been that active on HF anymore.

Have fun to all :) Remember to post some picture's!

I'll take a gift but won't give one.

Ang?I - December 13, 2014, 2:18 pm

I got my gift in the nick of time lol, right before I headed home from college for break. I decided to open it early since I don't plan on taking it home with me.

Thank you whoever you are! I really, really like the figurine, even though it is worst the worst girl from Nisekoi ?

I received mine a bit ago, but I didn't want to open it... And so I saw others opening theirs, and I simply couldn't wait.

These expectations were not for nothing.

I opened the package and what I saw was a wonder, it was:

Spoiler \(Click to View\) Spice and wolf, the first season!

I love it, and whoever you are, please know that I will watch it, and then watch it again!

What an amazing gift! Thank you so much! <3

Yea I was more interested in group specific secret santa exchanges (there's this one, a keyboard one and a tea one that I joined) since the gifts will be a bit more thoughtful usually and relating to a hobby that both people share

Trying to contact DHL to schedule a new delivery but they don't get any hits on the number... In case I fucked up I'll keep trying but whoever is my santa maybe it would be clever to try a new delivery yourself. Or just have them drop it at the post office and send me a note to come get it, I honestly don't mind, it's a 2 min drive.

I'm not sure how it works in your area but here DHL is a completely separate company from the post office so they would never just leave it there

I actually just came back home from Sweden to pick up another package from DHL, and they wouldn't deliver it at the post office so I had to pick it up at their terminal somewhere.

Well this is gonna be hard then, cause due to school I don't be home all day until 3, and if they only can deliver to my door it's gonna be a problem unless they can leave it there or deliver it on a Saturday. Or after 3.

Call them. Some companies are able to make arrangements that it won't be delivered after a certain time or that they will leave it at the door if you give them permission.

It's annoying because I have a parcel worth $2000 sitting in a warehouse when it was supposed to be delivered today

I would, but it seems the issue is that they can't find my tracking number or airwaynumber or whatever she called it. I got the number but the lady/man says it gets no hits there and I don't get any at the DHL websites either. =/
