After the initial failure to find the wolf coupled with the guilt of lynching one of their own, the tension is rising and rabbits realise the wolf will not be caught so easily. The rabbits take their time to carefully consider and make use of their time before the wolf hungers again and catch him before he can pick off each of them one by one.

Each rabbit had their own suspicions and some were not eager to share their opinion incase of repercussions.

After so quickly dispatching of Sh1eld the morale was low and the fear was high as the hour of the wolf drew closer and closer.

All the rabbits knew that the wolf was definitely amongst them. In the very same room as them, waiting for the time to spirit another of the bunnies away to consume them in safety. This wolf was sly and careful. Without proper planning the rabbits would likely all be sacrificed.

Another dilemma facing the rabbits was the actions of the potential wolf. While some rabbits were not afraid to voice their opinions and draw attention, other rabbits preferred to stay quiet in the background and pass quietly without suspicion. Either could easily be a pattern for a fly wolf to remain undetected within the herd.

Once again the rabbits gather together in the main hall to decide the fate of one of their own. Will they catch the wolf this time?

Don't vote or talk about the game if your name is not in the above poll!

The poll will be up for the next 24 hours. After this the votes will be locked in and the person with the highest amount of votes will be voted as the suspected wolf and killed!

Feel free to discuss, accuse, analyze, play with your votes or whatever your heart desires, but do it without hurting others. If you wouldn't say something to someone in real life, don't do it here either. Respect is necessary to have an enjoyable game, keep that in mind.

If you are inactive for four days, you will be removed from the game. If there is something hindering from taking part in the game for this long, remember to tell me in time if you want to still take part in the game afterwards.

If you have any questions, feel free to PM me.

Wasn't the wolf supposed to choose another victim?

Tasemu - October 19, 2014, 8:34 pm

I meant, wasn't the wolf supposed to pick a victim every round and then we'd vote for who we thought the wolf was?

Endo (dead) > voting > (sh1eld lynched and wolf killed tet)

that works out

Voting for Tweety because you have no heart and wouldn't think twice about killing a poor rabbit.

I'm really not too sure at this point, It would be nice if I had some sort of clue or pattern to go off of. Maybe I'm just not looking hard enough.

I guess I'll stick with my past vote for now. I have some suspicions but i'm not relatively sure it's worth going off of quite yet.
