Most of the trials from promotions stop working, i got few that are invalid.

You can not get games with gold using trials or gold only trials/demos. (fifa 15 demo for example)

I highly doubt the 7 days are going to stop working. I've never seen trial codes expire even though the promotion stated they expired. Example is RUFFLES 48hrs. They were all supposed to expire the end of last year but obviously didn't because people are still giving them out and selling them. I guess we will see if the skittles expire after the end of next week.

true deal especially during early year Jan-March 12 Month xbox live are atleast 25-30$ usd each key last year I did a ebay store... in the end ebay service is a rip off for you the retailer selling on their site but you could potentially rack up cash if you actually own a store eslewhere
