Thread: Just met Jenn X Penn at my university.

Ya, she is taking a class with me. It's very odd and I notice she lies about going back to LA. she does most of her filming in Detroit but does fly out to LA on a Thursday Then flies back on Sunday.

She and the producer of awesomeness TV is attending my class. They dress in cheap clothes and looks like they're trying to blend in. So, far no one in my class recognize them.

If anyone cares her full name is Jennifer Ann Mcallister. I got to talk to both of these guys and did eventually ask if she was Jenn X Penn and she smiles and didn't give an answer. They're trying to keep low key in the university.

Anyone know what I should be asking? I am trying to get connections with the media world. ?

Anything I should do or say to ease her into hooking me up with connections?
