Thread: Paypal | Never Lose a Dispute to Scammers

Acappello - October 23, 2014, 2:23 pm

Hey guys,

Selling an E-book I made on how to win paypal disputes. The product has some very HQ methods, that will surely win you case. There are several methods, with guidelines on how to win each kind of case. All you have to do is copy and paste the information under the quotes, and change it to your liking. All the methods have been tested and are guaranteed to work in most situations. For example, if someone chargebacked you with an unauthorized access case, all you have to do is copy and paste the text we have under that topic in the book.

I don't know why you would sell this. HF kinda needs this and some people are in negative balance due to the scammer, so they can't purchase this.

It was directed at those who have lost large amounts of money due to scams, and still have enough to purchase an e-book. They can purchase the e-book, and in the long run prevent $100's of loss

Just saying, "guaranteeing" the method to work in the OP is an outright lie and you should NOT trade like that.
