Thread: What Has Happened To The 'Sponsored Products and Services' Section?

Industry - October 25, 2014, 12:13 pm

Well, I was browsing through the marketplace and couldn't help but notice the 'Sponsored Products and Services' section is empty. All sections asides from 'Judge Dredd's Personally Approved Products and Services' have been removed O.o

I know an official thread would have been posted eventually. But, my curiosity got the best of me.

Omni originally did a price reduction on those forums but due to a continued lack of interest he decided to close them altogether.

There was 1 paying SMF owners left and without at least 4 or more I don't feel the program is worth keeping. It might return one day but for now it's removed. SMF owners were notified.
