Have any tutorial suggestions? Let me know and I may make a tutorial on it, giving the suggester credit for the idea :)

Suggestion;

Educate people instead of providing simple step-by-step instructions. All I see is do this, then this, then this, then this. Why? What do these commands do? Given a tutorial about encoding shellcode, for example, don't just give instructions but provide an explanation as to why it is important to encode shellcode in the first place. We have way to many 'tutorials' written in this style already. If you want to add something valuable, explain shit.

Hello,

I really appreciate you making the tutorials as a lot of people are asking how to do exactly what you are doing step by step in your tutorials. It is sort of getting annoying when the same questions is asked 20 + times but with a tutorial posted, that will reduce the amount of the same questions posted.

You could not a tutorial but a 'FAQ' for most people who ask questions in this section.

We recommend you take the time to read the HF Help Documents section. The answer to your questions should be contained in there.
