i love this crypter ive used it for a while now when i bought the lifetime its awesome its always FUD

Rampant - October 30, 2014, 4:46 pm
Before buying this (a few days ago) I was a bit scared of wasting money on something that I'm not even sure if it works.
I took a big risk and bought the lifetime license.

I do not regret my choice at all. I'm really happy with this crypter. It's simple, stable and FUD.
It also comes with a great tutorial video explaining everything you need to know step by step !

Vouch for this crypter ! Buy it ! You won't regret it :)

Very good product and crypter on HF!
Long lasting product with great fud time
When you are buying this crypter lifetime package it is an investment not another waste of money

I personally vouch for your product and encryption methods, thanks for your contribution in HF!

Vghworld - October 30, 2014, 7:29 pm
First bought this crypter I was hesitant to pay 50$ for the 6 month plan. Now I regret it :(I've not had any problems with this crypter it does what it advertises and it executes like thunder. Its FUD rate can last up to 2 weeks Highly reccomended

Inkyzt - October 31, 2014, 5:52 am
Vouch for this crypter! Very long lasting FUD. Highly Recommend.

SaTan-INK - October 31, 2014, 6:04 am great crypter always FUD with a coder who know his stuff and an amazing support with fast replies
i highly recommand it to any nanocore users , like me , who need a professionnal encryption software

good luck with sales sir

Just purchased, at first cyber seal was a very annoying person to talk to but for some reason I just cant help but laugh. Go back and review all 200 pages of comments on his original sales thread, he is a very intelligent and honest guy. He is available on skype, more than 10 hours a day for support, the first crypter with countless video tutorials that explain in detail what each feature does. An extraordinary crypter with tons of features in a slick, smooth program that works as promised. Oh and it is not a joke, the FUD times are out of this world.

Big shout out to Cyber, I would recommend the purchase.

VOUCH for Cyber Coder, very proffesional crypter and fast support.
Peace

youdealinwitavillain - November 3, 2014, 9:58 am vouch for this great crypter. it stays fud for a long time and is stable.

The Notorious B.I.G. - November 3, 2014, 10:14 am

I will admit when I first bought this crypter I was skeptical as I was getting some detections but recently after getting used to it and frequently updating my files are FUD.

I can vouch for this product.

Vaporiz3 - November 3, 2014, 1:51 pm

Grade A* this stuff, really helpful guy. Ive tried 3 crypters and non of them are as good as this one. Had a few teething problems with Prototype rat but decided to use nano as It was giving 0/60 FUD every time.

And if you can, I suggest you to use ResourceHacker to edit assembly after you sealed. This will help delete all AVS fake detection about assembly.

P.S= Change more than once your assembly and icon and re-scan. At the end you'll have a FUD result.

me to i use Several ways to cryptd the file like in the toturial but result is 9/35

i use high quality Icon and defrent assembly its not fud The results its like that for 5 days

i I hope you update ?

thank you ?

Change encryption.
It is 1/59. Only eset detect it from yesterday but CS was Fud from two weeks.
The best.

Cyber Coder - December 11, 2014, 3:03 pm exactly, for those who get more than nod32, you are using a detected icon/assembly.instead of posting here you could contact me on skype for support instead ;) after 2 weeks it got detected by nod32, I was out of the city so tomorrow Ill start working on update.The update is meant only for nod32, I can release 10 updates, if you use a detected icon/assembly you will get 5-10 detections, usually with the same name.I will also add the possibility to select an .exe as an icon (clone icon) to make it easy to find a good icon;) thanks ?

meskone - December 11, 2014, 11:12 pm
can confirm its only the NOD32 from ESET detecting it currently.
the other issues are all assembly and icon related !!

http://v2.scan.majyx.net/?page=results&sid=319773
http://scan4you.net/result.php?id=58c54_eq7hpl keep up the good work rly nice assembler for that price and better than most of the expensive competition..

thank you ?
I know what you did wrong.

Binding is not working properely so you can get that detections
Use high quality icons
Clone assembly from a high-quality program on your desktop Upgrade to a stabler rat such as Jrat or Njrat

1st you should start by learning how to read a pm on hf before giving support.
The binder works perfectly and I helped that guy long time ago.Jrat is a java rat and not even compatible with my crypter so stop giving shitty advises, thanks the crypter is still fud after more than 10 days, enjoy

Hottest shit on the market!! If you want a FUD for week! Go with Cyberseal

P???ce - December 27, 2014, 11:51 am
1. Is it compatible with darkcomet rat or hawkeye keylogger (since darkcomet rat is very old)?
2. Can I send payment manually via paypal?
3. Can I have $20 1 month subscription & if I love it I pay an other $20 for next 2 months upgraded service? (I don't have more than $20 at the moment.)

meskone - December 27, 2014, 4:08 pm
High Quality Crypter !
one of the longest FUD i have seen so far ! over 2 1/2 weeks and counting way to go ;)

(I don't have more than $20 at the moment.)I suggest you switch to NjRAT as it's much better overall in terms of stability and no matter what crypter you use you'll loose bots using DC. i'm speaking from my own experience.

As for your inquiry, First off, just save up for this crypter, and read my full review. I bought this a about 4 days ago and here it is :

I just want to say, HUGE Vouch for this crypter, this is a god among the other crypters. It has long FUD times, It's fairly easy to use (for noobs it takes a little tinkering with) But even if your a noob, fear not! This guy offers top notch support that I personally never expected to see anywhere on HF!

20/10 Support!

20/10 Product!

15/10 Speed in replies for support related questions

Over all : 18/10

If you're looking for a crypter and want to keep your bots for as long as possible, you'd be dumb to buy another crypter that gets detected in a few days.

Still don't believe me?

Well, make sure you have enough money left over to buy this once your disappointed!

All new rats should bypass those avs without any problems.I just used different rats to show that multiple compatibility and not use same rat every time.

those avs are kinda shitty and I didin`t feel the need to show the runtime against them as they are not as good as the one i've tested.Just because some avs are more used than others on a website doesn't make them better.

I've probably been through 20+ crypters over the last year or two and I can actually say I found my favorite crypter of all time.
The design is amazing and it's functionality is as good as it looks I've never stumbled upon it non-fud, it has always served me well.

Most important features for me are the persistence and hidden startup and they work like a dream.

It also has a bunch of other features and unlike other crypters every single one of them works.

Huge vouch for CS!

Omg This Cryptor Is Just Awesome...I was Able to BYpass Avast,Avg,Kaspersky, and Norton 360 During my first test On Runtime(It is what matters),and all was very stable..I restarted several times and checked it thoroughly.
And i dont beleave in scantime and even don't bother to check it..I don't beleave in any online scanner available on internet.
Why i don't beleave ,Pm Me and i will explain you with live video :)

On My past 3 days i paid 8 dollar 3 times per crypt,and that was not able to bypass any of those Antiviruses in Runtime(It is what matters)mentioned above except avast and only for a day after that it was detected and kicked to virus chest..

A big Vouch For this Cryptor....and i guarantee its Knoob Friendly..BUt not stupid friendly :) So do all things said by the cryptor and owner of it.

AT LAst I Found An HQ Product I was Waiting For.....

Support---> Its Awesome Untill You will Need.....

Hey, crypter looks great! would you be interested in selling a private version? With regular payments for updates to keep files running Fud indefinitely. I have a nice budget if you want to strike a deal for regular business?

MELLOW. - March 1, 2015, 3:34 pm
Looks great I will give it a try. Thank you.

the one received on skype support and not on my sales thread ramnesia - March 3, 2015, 9:47 am

My question will seem dumb but I am new in using crypters, i am looking forward to buy this crypter but there is something i do not get, when I crypt my server and bypass someones AV could the AV detect it after the server had deployed?

invisiblefingers - March 3, 2015, 2:25 pm
I have a similar question, if my server was detected after a while, I'll need to infect my slave again?

Cyber Coder - March 4, 2015, 11:22 am yes, but if your guy isnt using nod32 i wouldn`t worry to much as in the last months no other av other than nod32 could get my crypter ?

I've heard many good things about this crypter and I'm planning to buy the lifetime package by the end of this month.

I have one question: does each package contain the same features and FUD rate?

narmag - March 9, 2015, 6:06 pm
OMG This is the best crypter! Support is very fast and polite! I vouch for it!

I wanna come back and vouch for CyberSeal. I bought this months ago, and there was a little bit of a learning curve at first but I eventually figured it all out. The dev is good for support, and makes sure to maintain FUD.

My time is up, Ill be renewing shortly.

i never pumped 1 mb to get rid of kazy/barys detections, those are caused by icon or assembly 99% of the time, from next update the crypter will have default icon and assembly to ensure everyone gets fud just by browsing his server and sealing ?

cyberseal is one of the best crypter here in HF especially the fact that its FUD longtime and has unicode feature.

Cyber Coder - April 21, 2015, 12:34 pm added default icon and assembly so that everyone would get fud results straight away but i still recommend finding your own fud icon/assembly for long term results whenever you become more familiar with this crypter, you will be more productive in generating FUD servers. Just select suitable icon and assembly then leave the rest work upon the crypter. That was my experience with it.

this is one of the best crypters on HF. If you really need a crypter, dont forget to give this a try.

bZ_N - June 3, 2015, 2:18 pm

Don't get this if you decide to encrypt malware. It's not a bad crypter, good coder and decent support I may say.

Let me explain why:
1. It's coded in VB, making it stupid to encrypt malware with.
2. The hidden startup isn't actually hidden startup, and even if you still claimed it was, why would you advertise it being in sFolder -.- ?
3. It uses RunPE method, way too common for malware.
4. It doesn't obfuscate the file in any way shape or form, so...

I can go further, but that's it.

yes, the startup is hidden when you use temp or appdata, sFolder comes from Startup Folder which is the only one that is not hidden.
Is to common for malware?you should see my video demonstration of bypassing all important avs in runtime.
Besides nod32 NO other av could get my crypter in the last months unless you use some detected icon or assembly, the output is VERY obfuscated.You should find better stuff to do other than hacking, is clearly not for you but with the -rep you have no wonder why you are such a LQ user?
p.s, i don`t even find you in my database, you are probably not even a customer;)

I've purchased from you.

The language has dependencies.

So mention that then.

It's not common because of dependencies.

I barely visit this site -.-

Great programming, never had a stub go non-fud and been using for about a month.

Although I could say things about his customer support, he offers the best service I have ever tried crypt-wise, and I would not hesitate to purchase from him again.

actually i do, i get about 1 cracker every 2 weeks asking for download link, to protect me and my customers I won`t give the download link to anyone that just adds me on skype and asks for it.Nobody have to keep anything, a legitimate customer can show proof of transaction any time having it in its bitcoin wallet, pm account or paypal account,it`s not like this transactions disappear out of the sudden and you have to make a special effort to keep them ?

Hello everyone,

I would like to know if Cyberseal crypter works for Zeus. exe , citadel, ice9 botnet ? Does the Crypter bind and do extension ?

I will be waiting for a prompt answer.

thanks and regards

SIM-2502833 - August 20, 2015, 11:14 pm

I'm fairly sure the crypter works with those, but I am unsure. Yes, it does bind and extension spoof.

"does not work" - the most retarded way to describe a problem.Instead of contacting me on skype with a detailed explanation about your issue so i can help you, you post this here, that will surely fix your problem ???

probably others are too lazy to spend time decompiling the crypted file to look what`s inside and is easier for them to tag icons or assembly, nod seems the only one that really takes his time to decompile the files and have the best reverse engineers .rarely other av other than nod detects my crypter
If you google search best antivirus nod is far behind others, is strange as all crypter owners from here have nod32 as their worst nightmare

Check your icon/assembly. Only ESET a/v gets it at the moment. Also if your intended client is using ESET then they will most likely know when their computer has a rat on it.

These will be a short tutorial for pepole who gets problem with the detections Kazy/Barys which is the Icon or the assembly

How to find a HQ Icon

If you want to do it easy then you can just go to iconfinder.com and find a random icon.

If you want to choose a icon that doesnt exist on iconfinder.com then you can follow the tutorial below.

Step 1: Go to google.
Step 2: Search for anything, (ex. Chrome Icon)
Step 3: Chose a picture that you think fits/looks good.
Step 4: Save it as a jpg,png, or jgep.
Step 5: Go to www icoconvert com
Step 6: Click "Choose File"
Step 7: Select the image you just downloaded.
Step 8: Click "Upload"
Step 9: Scroll down and press "Convert"

Step 10: Click the blue text saying "Download your icon(s)"
Step 11: The .ico will download and there you go, eZ FUD icon.

For the assembly part you should just choose random ones til you get it fud.

Take the time to find a good icon. A legit assembly and this crypter does wonders. I've used MANY crypters on this forum and if you put in the time this crypter has one of the longest FUD times. Put effort and don't be a fucktard.

The reason why you have to find a "good" icon as you call it is because AVs has detected the stub with a size filter. AVs detect it but only at a certain size, it has nothing to do with icons or not, adding EOF datasize would do the exact same thing.

This is why i always fud my stubs without icons. then i proceed with fudding it with 200kb resource, then 300 then 400 etc...

If you are choosing different icons and its fud with 1 icon but detected with another, then its because the main filesize changes with the icon.

The icon changes and then decreases/increases the main file size. It has nothing to do with "Good or bad icon" its just about how well you fud it before you release. (because of the size-detection filter)

Well sometimes it can be a bad icon or bad assembly ofcourse but that is usually detected by Avira and doesnt give a barys or kazy detection.

When i fud my stubs and i get a Kazy or barys, i can sometimes just choose an icon that is 30kb less or 30kb larger and the end result may be fud, even though all the icons in itself are clean.

Just because you still have a barys or kazy doesnt mean that the icon is detected, its still all about the main filesize.

This is why i said i fud with 100kb, then 200 then 300 and check everything before i release, so its fud without icon and with any size.

Lets say If you added a 200kb icon to your stub that had barys detection and it made it fud, you could still just add a random resource with 200kb randomized bytes and it would do the exact same thing.

The icon changes and then decreases/increases the main file size. It has nothing to do with "Good or bad icon" its just about how well you fud it before you release. (because of the size-detection filter)
Well sometimes it can be a bad icon or bad assembly ofcourse but that is usually detected by Avira and doesnt give a barys or kazy detection.

When i fud my stubs and i get a Kazy or barys, i can sometimes just choose an icon that is 30kb less or 30kb larger and the end result may be fud, even though all the icons in itself are clean.

Just because you still have a barys or kazy doesnt mean that the icon is detected, its still all about the main filesize.
This is why i said i fud with 100kb, then 200 then 300 and check everything before i release, so its fud without icon and with any size.

Lets say If you added a 200kb icon to your stub that had barys detection and it made it fud, you could still just add a random resource with 200kb randomized bytes and it would do the exact same thing.i will keep that in mind and do some tests but try using a jpg or word icon and you will see what detections you will get

You are wrong and Cyber is wrong as well.
Some icons because of extensive usage are becoming detected. (example: jpg default icon from xp)
You can get rid of those detection by editing the ICON.

The crypter is fud now for 1 month and still fud, once you get a great icon/assembly combo, it stay fud for a very very long time, and the stub is small so it's perfect, this is the first time i vouch for a crypter, i had too many crypters but this one is the best as far as you can imagine people... Really im not a fake voucher or doing shit, the coder isnt my friend, get 40$ and buy this !! That's all i have to say hahaha you got so frustrated that you couldn`t find a video tutorial in a program that takes 30 sec to go trough all options that you felt the need to post in my thread? lmfao, i told you EXACTLY where to find it inside the crypter , an average customer takes 2 mins, you still haven`t found it in hours, so sad that ppl like you want to do "hacking" stuff.And btw, for your info, support is about pointing you in the right direction after you put some effort on your own and get stucked somewhere.If you think support is about you sitting back and relax while I do all the work trough tv then you are one lazy mf.? don`t worry, the tutorial will start automatically tomorrow as is programmed to start automatically on the 2nd day of the license but trust me, you should find easier stuff to do, rats and crypters are waaay above your IQ area.

i think i have an assembly,and its still fud from a long time, i just change icon and the result turns fud..and also i noticed one thing on the cryptor, each crypt with a new assembly and icon has its own fud time.. not like other cryptors that if one is detected,other also.... i think this is the best crytor on earth and each crypt has its own fud time depending. on how u spread it.
And lets talk abt runtime now-->
Avast,avg,norton,macafee,malwarebytes,windowsdefender,microsoftsecurity,quickheal,360...
these i am bypassing on runtime with startup enabled,just Avg needs startup manually done :)

It comes with .NET yes, but its .NET 1.0.
Framework 2.0 was not introduced until Windows Vista.

Is your crypter compatible with 1.0? If its not, then your crypter is only default compatible from Windows Vista -> Windows 7

Dont get me wrong here, im not here to trash your sales.
Most users do however install these frameworks manually.

I just wanted to make sure you give your customers accurate information.

If you compile it with 3.5... it wont work on 2.0... Standard XP, Windows Vista
If you compile it with 2.0 it wont work with Standard XP, Windows 8 and 10..

So youre kinda in an evil loop here unless you use framework lookup with forced injection and drop the self-inject.

You said that XP comes with framework 2.0 from sp2, this is wrong.
I have 3 untouched VMs with Windows XP and none of them has framework 2.0.

The user will need to accept and install an update through windows update...
This does not make it standard.

Im not gonna bother you anymore but i think its best to give proper information rather than misinformation.

Vouch for this crypter, got lifetime and it's worth it. You just need to take the time to configure the settings/assembly and icon, once that's done it will be truly FUD. Support is good too, got help on how to make it FUD.

now only nod32 and the update is over 2 weeks old, rarely other av besides nod32 catches my crypter, pretty much all crypters have nod detecting within 1 day

tacos912 - January 28, 2016, 12:59 pm

Purchased and used product, great guy with a great product very helpful answered all questions I had. Nearly FUD with a little tweaking(about 3 hours, watched tut 2 times) just NOD that catches you but out of all of them it isn't bad at all.

it's a good crypter but depend on your use you can get some 9/x detection or more but if you know how to use it's can be FUD or few detections update slows but strong, just buy it be carefully as you are so close on being on my ass that you are smelling my farts, you must have a very boring life.why does anybody have to give you any proof?you`re some kind of VIP and i`m missing something or you`re just buthurt cuz i banned your license for charging back? You can get 100% fud but you need more time to bypass nod and it doesn`t worth it, with few crypts you can get it 1/35 (eset) and I release update for eset in few days.if my customer showing you will make you stop being on my ass i will ask him to show you, otherwise i don`t see the point,you`re just wasting my thread space

Guys I tried 3 crypters (Razor, Ghost and One more something called boson which i dont remember exactly). and below is my rating

1.) Cyber Seal- 10/10 in FUD , 10/10 - Support, 10/10 - Functionality

2.) Ghost - 9/10 in Fud , 10/10- Support , 7/10 - Functionality

3.) Razor - 7/10 in FUD , 5/10 - Support , 6/10 - Functionality

This is really a beast, if you find it expensive there is a strong reason for it and thats you get "Quality". Trust me that this is a honest review coming from a legit user of crypter. Its worth ever single penny.

Great crypter, considering that it is available to anybody. Most crypters won't stay FUD as long or have nearly as good runtime results.

Great product. Quick response, and one of the most available people in terms of skype support. I know my word is not worth much, but I definitely vouch for Cyber!

Hey, when people say a crypter is .net dependent, native, etc. or both, are they simply talking about the dependency of the crypter to encrypt the file?

A better way to put it is this: You have a crypter that is .net 2.0 dependent, so you you encrypt a file with the required .net 2.0 computer. Now that the file is encrypted, will a computer that doesn't have .net 2.0 framework (lets say it has a .net 4.0) be able to then download/execute the crypted file?

sorry I'm learning all of this stuff from win7 (and even some xps), .net comes preinstalled.From windows 8 if any program requires a version of .net that is not installed windows will ask you to download it automatically and run it.

my crypter gets 1-2 detections per month, it bypasses almost all avs in runtime, my lifetime is not few months like others, i don`t "refresh" my database like some owners do when they can`t handle the refuds.I`m probably the older crypter seller on hf (2010)

Neckrox - April 9, 2016, 7:06 am Still vouch for this crypter, only thing that stinks is the built in AV scan seems to always be down. If it's not working, you're probably not doing something right. It's a program you have to experiment with and see whats best for your application.

My meaning of "If it's not working you're probably not doing something right" is in a completely different context. I meant if the crypter isn't working you're not doing something right....

Some limitations though.

As the installation settings of LL should be disabled, the AntiMaleware functions of LL do not work.
Remote Desktop works, but hangs up as soon as you enable remote mouse/keyboard.

But the RDP manager works and you can create a separate RDP account. :)

Hello, does this support itself injection with .net rats like nanocore. And is it able to hold clients without them disappearing soon after they connect.
Also it seems u only update one or two times a month, which can be a good sign dat the crypted file stays fud for long, and u dont have to recrypt every day. But is that a standard due to ur schedule or the crypters fudness. Basically do u refud once or twice a month whether the crypter is detected or not, or do u refud once it gets detected. Tanks.

Yes, it supports self inject so it supports RAT's like Nanocore and LuminosityLink.

He updates the crypter when 2 big AV's are detecting it.

Usually takes 15 - 25 days.

Unable to reply due to new account but I appreciate the offer!

It was frustrating me since my stub was scanned with 1/35 but when tested on a client it was stopped immediately. I'll have a play with pump and see what I get, I typically use 4-15mb but probably needs to be more.

LL is working with Cyber Seal .
However , you need watch video carefully to use this crypter .

Should ~ 1 mb pumb , good icon , good assembly from legit program .
1/35 , bypass real time scan (window defend , Notorn , Avast .....) but detected by KIS .
Anyone suggest me how to bypass Kis real time ? thank Great crypter, I am really surprised from how good this crypter is! I have really good Scan results(0/35 or 1/35), and the crypter is fuded for really long time compare to other crypters i own,

The climax was when I checked my crypted stub on really HIGH socured system from classified company and i wasn't able to detect this virus even when i directly scanned it!

Big vouch for this product!

1. make this crypter fud at first crypt. problem is you just have to crypt and crypt till you get close to fud which is time consuming.

2. provide option to save profile settings. this will save us time when crypting next time since we already know the perfect settings saved.

3. reduce the time it takes to crypt after hitting the the seal button.

thanks

I suppose those are nice idea's, however you can ask him in a nice way :p
This crypter just gave me a FUD file, yes, it is time consuming. But a FUD file including ESET bypass is still pretty amazing. I would really vouch for this crypter. Has some nice options, good executes, a nice developer and, if you invest some time, 0/35 detectionrate is possible..
VOUCH.

congratulations for winning the dumbest question of the week award, ever heard of this things called UPDATES? I`m releasing one right now and the crypter is much older than 2 years

-refuded
-added random icon generator, now when you don`t select any icon the crypter will add automatically a unique icon each time at a random resolution so if you get kazy/barys detections play only with the assembly cloner and do few crypts with same settings until you hit a good icon and get fud results

This crypter is never fud.. and the only answer you get from support is "watch video tutorial, change your Icon and/or assembly!!! You change icon and assembly a hundred times and you still wont get fud!
I just exhausted my 4 months... 4 months and not 1 fud!!! A total waste!!
May God be my witness!
This gonna be my first.. and hopefully last negative comment on any sales thread here on HF.

you poor idiot,if you use your shitty pdf and word icons of course you won't get good results ,you think all those scan results from the last months that were fud or 1/35 were fake?get a brain before using a crypter but is a common thing among nigerians to have a low IQ, nothing surprising here, I think any product owner here can confirm that nigerians are the most brainless customers they`ve dealt with tried to explain you the detection come from icon/assembly, you scan on website that distribute then complain about not being fud, when i try to help you block my skype ???

i recommend you to take the time and read the crypter bible, read about gen detections then look at the names of your detections from your scan link before jumping to conclusions usually eset is the pain in the ass that detects the fastest, besides eset rarely other av gets it if correct settings are used

Absolutely top notch crypter. Been using CyberSeal to protect a specific tool for a long time and and I have never been disappointed. Long time FUDness is one of the reasons I can't stop using it..

For future reference, keywords like "Install", "Setup", or "Update" will request UAC. Avoid those, this is not the crypter's fault.

Maybe it would help if you do a new scan.

Hey @Cyber Coder.

I've sent you a message on skype to purchase your services.

Although I'm not much of a notable member, I vouch for this product.

I added Cyber on skype, within the hour I got a reply, helped me setup the program and everything that I needed.

Definately an amazing program, seen the product in action, and also ready to test for myself. Please don't be afraid to pick up a copy for yourself.

360 detects a lot of runtime behaviour. Same with panda. If you'd like I'll set up both AVs and gonna make proper runtime scans. I added you on skype a while ago - you didn't accept me.

When I bought this crypter I had similar issues also.

13/35.. 11/35 e.t.c..

Buh this crypter made me know that HQ Icon and a NON POPULAR Assembly and also file pumper can make ur server fud.. After I used hq icon, assembly and pumping, I got 100%FUD.. 0/35 and the worst I got throughout that week was 1/35... With other crypters I crypter everyday but with Cyberseal I crypt a maximum of twice a week. This is a HQ Crypter.. I vouch for this crypter.. LONG

I bought your crypter four years ago and I feel good, but I do not understand why you have eliminated me.

because i cleaned up my skype from all the useless skypes that i had and deleted everyone few months ago that i havent spoke in over 3 months, why, your finger hurts to add me again if you need something?

but hurt user who can`t remember his net seal username because he haven`t reedemed his license on an username that matches his hf username as i asked him when he bought ? next time write it down if you know you`ve having a 3 bytes brain memory and you`re unable to fallow simple instructions, i showed you screenshoot that there is no treypeter1 in my net seal database and you can cry all day, it won`t change that.Since net seal is having a new owner he reseted the auto login so all customers had to login to their account again so i had about 5 complains with the same stuff,i simple told them they are not entering with the right account where they entered their license, they understood and they have login with the right account, is not my fault you make 3131 net seal accounts and you don`t remember the one you`ve used for my crypter.Contact netseal owner and tell him to look into my account and he will confirm that there is no treypeter1 in my database and account cannot be removed.This is like the 10th time you made me explain to you but you won`t understand anyway then you wonder why i lose my patience and start trowing insults at you.
edit:
another customer just experienced the same problem, here is how simple his problem was fixed when he understood his problem
https://imgur.com/28t87VF your net seal username is probably very similar to the one you`ve used and that`s why you think you login to the right one

This is the best product in hf, honest seller. I get 1/35 most of the time and its long lasting but im having an issue which I believe is from my side or my rat. I use orcus rat and each time I crypt a bin and run it, it says "orcus server has stopped working, windows is checking for a solution to the problem". I disabled all options in rat before building but its still same. please anybody with an idea of what I should do? I will appreciate

The detection rate is depend on icon and assembly and the best now its about 2/35

and as much as i known an update will be release soon, you won't be able to find any other crypter on the market can stand that last-long UD time.

Yes I did a mistake and added cyber..seal, an impostor, since i'm not used to use skype. But it my e-mails were directed to your main e-mail and no answer. I've paid for this fucking crypter and didn't used it, because of this fucking bug that happens all the time ""seems to be an error, contact owner after 24 hours"". It was not my error, because u sold me a bugged software. If you don't wanna gimme support, no problem, my period is expired too. I'm talking about MY EXPERIENCE with your crypter, that I was not able to use. BTW nice way to talk with your clients.

How do we know your not just uploading a file that contains no viruses?

if I was a crypter owner and got tired I would just do what I said above no offense though... its just that I've seen other complain about having more than 1/30 right but you always have 0/30

I have only managed to get it to 0/30 once after over 500 crypting attempts (spent all day learning / crypting) and tested it on majyx and pscan and ziscan they all showed as no detections but then 1 or 2 hours later detections started showing up and I believe it was right after one of your update's actually

Definitely better than any other crypter current though

Definitely better than any other crypter current thoughi can give you the file and you run it on your computer and check it by the md5 to see that is the same file, is fud because i scan it when i release update and eset is always fast to detect so if you test after 2 days after an update is likely to get eset detection but that`s pretty much it , very rarely going above 1/35 compare the md5 to see that is the same file and take a look

My Skype ID is "pandoraboy1999" we have written yesterday, a friend has paid for me because my PayPal did not worked.

EDIT: It was not Cyber Coders fault, Skype bugged and he could not read my messages, they would not showed him.
I got the Crypter now, really hyped! :)

the scan server (pscan) may have blocked your IP, try to access pscan.xyz , if yo ucan't access it , its mean the owner have ban your IP or your country.

most new customers are learning to use it in hours the fact you still haven't learned in 5 months should give you an idea where the problem is coming from(behind the computer to be more specific) the crypter never goes above 1 2 detection your license is close to expire if you're thinking of renewing it DON'T if you are having a problem getting the McAfee - Trojan-FJJX!396B62AB613E detection off. I have only had luck by changing the assembly. If you do 5 seals with different kb pumps and one or more of them doesn't have McAfee - Trojan-FJJX!396B62AB613E then your assembly is good and you should stick with it. Even if you get a 11/35 if McAfee- CLEAN then keep the assembly and try pumping different kb amounts I have found that starting at 1 and going up by 1 works best. If you buy this crypter you MUST HAVE PATIENCE because it can take a while to get it to optimal detection which is currently 2/35(very very good considering when the last update was). I sealed over 150 files with six different assembly, only 3 different icons(because i knew my icon where not the problem) and a bunch of different kb pumps. The only encryption i would use with this is polymorphic-stairs. I have not been able to get the others to work. I have also had better luck with checking random bytes box under pumper(but that could just be coincidence). stay safe and good luck guys!

that`s strictly your opinion based on your experience, most customers learn to use it in hours after they buy it, you`re just a slow learner but at the end at the day is good that you figure it out, once you learn to use it you see for yourself that the fud times are very big?

mrfee5 - December 5, 2016, 4:25 am

Oh your going to insult me when i have an inbox full of people asking me how to use it? Even after i gave them detailed instructions through pm on how to ATTEMPT to get a "fud(2/35)" file. Im not a slow learner this is a slow program. Its a shame my icons and assemblies work for other programs but not yours... well maybe they do work i just have to pump the file by 1 all the way to 100 to find out and maybe get a 2/35 scan. I have no problem getting my file to 2/35. I have a problem with the amount of seals i have to do to get there. Who wants to spend 2 hours crypting one file. I also have trouble understanding why only one encryption type works. I have a problem with the fact you advertise all these features but don't explain that if you want SCAN TIME or RUN TIME "FUD" you cant use them. Or the fact that i tried to keep this private between me and you in a pm and when i posted something to help people (the only reason i posted it was because several people messaged me asking for help.) you decided to call me a slow learner as if you never heard these complaints before. which i know you have because of the people that messaged me. Im not going to post the messages they sent me or the ones i sent you bc im not trashing your sales thread. All i did was post a bit of advice along with my experience. So don't get all pissed at me because you want to keep these things hidden until people pay. You could have just responded to my pm or helped your clients via pm so i didn't have too.

Yes. 1/35! I used scan.majyx.net and get the same 1/35 as Sufiyan. Just bind with a file and it becomes almost FUD every time. Only ESET NOD32 detects it. Other almost effective AVs are Kaspersky Antivirus and FortiClient.

Huge Vouch for this!
I cant imagine a better crypter. There are really frequent refud updates and my crypted files be a long time fud.
Usually i get 1/35 or 2/35 after a few days and thats really good.
Price Performance of this crypter is incredible. For other crypter you pay much more....

Of course if i clone bad icon or assembly i probably get 15/35 or something, but thats noch CyberSeals fault :)

Support? Very good. I had several problems and got fast help usually within a day. Two times op was helping me with TeamViewer. He's very competent and could solve every problem.

I'm very satisfied!

its is just better than everyone else, you won`t find any crypter that lasts more than 1 days for eset unless is something really private only for you but the good part is not that used as an av

Actually, one of my friends has it and my Mother's work computer has it too, but I've only seen it twice being used.

Anyway, I shall contact you further when I am ready to purchase it.

licker98 - January 29, 2017, 12:47 pm

I bought Cyberseal earlier today and I have to say, I am very impressed. I've never bought a crypter before, but the seller was very helpful and didn't get annoyed with me even though I was new. I managed to get 1/35 at best so I'm delighted with the results.

If you're hesistant to buy, don't be! It's a top quality crypter.

There is no way to achieve what you REALLY want. No matter what the file can be spoofed to be read as "imageofalexe.jpg" however when you email it or attach it to a .rar or look at it in a folder you can still look on the right at the "details" and it'll say it's an application file.

But the spoofing thing can be done by this crypter and it does it well.

iv seen them go 2 - 3.5 weeks, avr.

in rare cases it only lasts 1 week or so, but thats only the stub, u can recrypt and get it FUD again. etherway, its pritty much the longest FUD time from a crypter ATM, unless u get a priv stub.

iv had the crypter for a while now, and trust me when i said that.. it was worth every singal penny, no im not cheesing it. at first i had some probs, couldnt get it FUD and though it was the crypters fault. but now that iv learnt how to use it.. its damn good, longest FUD time iv seen. and with the new anti-memo scanner the runtime is godly.

dosnt matter if the crypter is 80 or 180$, its damn worth it. cybercoder knows his shit.

iv always wondered how ESET is so fast, do they ONLY focus on high risk threats, but have shitty detection for adware or other things?, or is there scantime just generally better than most AV's?

Eset flags almost everything as unwanted or harmful program

Deleted my game once!
And they do pay alot to scanning and hosting sites to get files

Hello I am a big fan of your program although it is a bother to have my host file editted because sometimes I have to scan actual malwares.
But since Aeon's arrest it has been decided Net Seal will shut down.
What will happen to our licenses?

Hey, you can simple make your hosts files read only, changing the hosts is important to avoid beginners scan on virustotal.
Regarding netseal shutting down I already have a backup plan that will slowly be implemented until june 1st.I will make an announcement in few days about how will handle the movement. The crypter will continue to work normally ?

I've been a dynamic client of Cyberseal since the beginning of human advancement. When I initially bought the item I was loaded with fervor when I felt free to utilized the item. Be that as it may it didn't function admirably.

I urge clients to look else where. This crypter utilizes obsolete capacities in another age time we're living in. Also, did I say the proprietor couldn't talk legitimate English? Why might you buy something from somebody online who can not talk the web fundamental dialect

I haven't seen such a stupid post in a very long time. Lots of the coders here are not first hand English speakers; however, this does not take from the quality of their crypters. If we were to discriminate against crypters because they "cannot* talk the web fundamental dialect", we'd be underestimating a lot of crypters. Keep your shit to yourself and quit sales trashing.

Have you not pondered the bleak reality of our world that the obsoletes remain while the novel fall? Utilizing techniques such as SmartAssembly to create a 5/35 file, the original poster of this thread has managed to swindle money from many while placing the blame upon the incorrect use of icons and assembly despite these being completely irrelevant as the detections are MSIL, Kryptic, Heuristic and most commonly Injector. With such detections, placing blame upon icons and assembly is simply ridiculous and shows how the coder is incompetent and avoiding the simple reality of how his product is detected.

use another license system obviously
edit:
seems that the owner of netseal screw us earlier than he said,the new license system will be implemented in worst case in 1 week but hopefully earlier,please avoid spamming me and have patience or you will just delay me, thank you

Cyber, can you please tell me how you detect users that scan the crypted files on virustotal? And why aren't more crypter developers on HF detecting and preventing distribution scans this way also?

Edit: He scanned the crypter itself, not a file crypted. I think I interpreted that wrong. I do not know what harm is involved in scanning the crypter specifically, but Its common sense it could cause damage. And I certainly wouldn't do it without expressed permission. I just don't understand people that keep doing this on here.. the stupidity involved with this virus total nonsense needs to end.

Thanks for all your work Cyber :) love your design, and im sure I will buy myself a copy sometime soon.

when is not fud is usually detected by eset, but besides eset rarely other av gets it even if weeks past by, you can add me on skype if you have more questions

LeakerTM - June 21, 2017, 11:18 am

My Honest review:
Support: 10/10
I always see him online and I always geting answers.
I also have bad english+I am kinda annoying and he still giving me support.

Detection: 2/39 (Eset and another shity av) and this after 5 days of refud! (This is means very very very very good)
I used RevengeRat 0.3

Features: 9/10
Amazing Features!
But no anti sandboxie :/

Price: 10
You are basically getting what you pay for you are paying 40$ for 3 months and you are getting an OP crypter.

Overall: 9.5
One of the only HF crypters that worth buying!

Quality product as always. Initially, I had a few pesky detections that wouldn't go away as I haven't fiddled with a piece of software like this in quite a bit, but I eventually got it down to being only detected by ESET Nod which seems to be common. Overall, this is a good product, don't bother messaging him until you've learned how to actually use it. Watch the video, I recommend it.

Since today I am making my honest reviews of products that I have bought...

And since I AM NOT GONNA TALK ABOUT CYBER CODER... because ekhm. I am not gonna.

Anyway, Cyber Seal...

This is honest as *, I have bought plenty of crypters. I am not gonna name them, because do not wanna get downvoted, however... This is the only crypter that is trully capable of being undetectable at runtime. This and only THIS shows quality of the crypter.

Only Data Protector that I bought (I don't even remember when [so long ago]) was at the same level of quality.

So... vouch for this crypter. It outclasses almost every crypter with shared stub at whole Hack Forums.

So my first dealing with the Dev. What a shame.

I added him on Skype as per his skype details advertised on his first post. I simply had some questions.

Was greated by some rude ass cunt, who has no manners, grammar or respect for someone who is interested and talking out time of a busy schedule to purchase a product. If you think all of us on HF are cash cows who should simply just purchase no questions ask you need some lessons in politeness.

You sell a product, you interact with the public/potential customers who might be interested. If I did this in my line of work and told people to just press the pay button without asking questions you'd get shown the exit.

What's the point of dropping me a PM? Let me answer that for you as anyone with 2 brain cells might have some ideas.
- My security and yours. I'm doing a financial transaction with real personal details with you
- I have some simple questions that could have been answered from you instantly about your product.
- So that I know I have the right fucking person as there are 20 clones of you on skype and so I know that your account is not compromised at specific time of talking to you.

Get fucked.

Quote:What's the point of dropping me a PM? Let me answer that for you as anyone with 2 brain cells might have some ideas.
- My security and yours. I'm doing a financial transaction with real personal details with you no , you weren`t doing any transaction, you were asking some questions, not everyone who adds me on skype becomes a customer and not everyone who wants to buy gets to buy it.After hitting me with your autism i would have clearly told you to find something before giving you the chance to make any payment.
Quote:- So that I know I have the right fucking person as there are 20 clones of you on skype and so I know that your account is not compromised at specific time of talking to you. is written in red on 1st page to click the skype button to avoid talking to an impostor, get your eyes checked
Quote:If I did this in my line of work and told people to just press the pay button without asking questions you'd get shown the exit. who the fuck told you to pay anything or not ask questions?stop putting words in my mouth

1.There is a skype button on 1st page of my thread that you click and redirects directly to me
2.Even if you add manually you can right click>view profile and see the skype id
3.I clearly told you that i will send you a confirmation here WHEN you will be ready to pay, nobody asked you to pay anything without a pm confirmation idiot, you don`t need a confirmation to ask questions.
4.Your payment method is bitcoin most probably so you don`t need to send anything to some skype given btc address, payments are directly maid on official website.
5.The only one with 2 brain cells here is no-one but you, thanks for hitting me with your autism 1st thing in the morning !

AJ911 - July 28, 2017, 10:37 pm
I just see bullshit pouring out of that orifice, close it up before the flies get in.

I didn't contact you for information on how to pay. I contacted you about information on the program. Why would I be ready to pay when I have outstanding questions? Derp.

How would someone be ready to pay if they have questions? Derp
How do you not understand this?

I don't care about the skype button, like I said, your account could be compromised, your password could be 'mybreathsmellslikecatshit123' for example. A simple PM to validate who I was talking to would have sufficed.

And no, my payment method was not BTC.

Hello,

Can this be used in some way to install a .exe from a URL? Silent install maybe?
It's nothing illegal, is more like Greyhat since I bundle real software with ads and some av's do warn about it.

Let me know :)

MY VOUCH FOR THIS GREAT SOFTWARE
==========
It's pretty amazing to see a crypter that has been long on the seen with so many options to better protect your files that users will be spoilt for choice. And the support for both Native and .Net is quite impeccable.

And when you add the coder on skype for any form of support the response is lightning fast that makes you wonder if he is online 24/7.

I used autobuy and I commend the setup and delivery structure as response to my transaction was quick as the delivery of the software.

The demo video. This is the greatest show of love and concern for customers as I am yet to see a demo video that is more detailed and explanatory than what comes up on first use of crypter. I highly commend the idea and urge fellow customers to spend that time to familiarize themselves with the features and their uses to ensure FUD results and avoid file corruption.

In all I recommend this software to anybody who has need for file protection while at the same time ask that users desist from using file distributing scan engines so as to not rubbish the quality of work put in this software.

If this question has already been answered, I must have missed it. When I crypt a file with CyberSeal, how long will the file remain 0/36 on average? I have used several crypters, and most of them started getting a few detections within an hour or so of a new sub being released and are usually 13/36 within 24 hours.

Now, talk me the problem is behind the monitor? And if yes? What you have with this? I buy a program, not get support, only reply's aggressive, and insulting me. In the site is written "Over 15 hours per day of HQ support trough skype/ymessenger and teamviewer.". And before buy i ask if your program is compatible of my RAT's, you talk yes, but not work and you not help.

I have a list of products i buy here and all is all right:

And now i only have a two problems, one with cyber codex (really good cryper), but this crypter not executing my RAT. But have a good Scan Virus Find, many tools and work fine 90% of times...

And your Crypter, Is found of 6 or more Scans, is bad quality, any time show a error message "if this error persist in 24h, contact us". And the best of your program, where any time i need format my PC, or exclude VM Whare because any error, i lost my login and you don't care about this.

Is better for you give a more attention of yours clients, not sell and fuck the buyer. Many peoples have difficulties and need help, and you offers this but no make.

The Codex reset my license two time, with good words and attention. You only reset you and it was not enough to curse me.
This is very unpleasant and disrespectful.

If you not give my license back, where i only use 15 days of 90, its ok, you not the first or last seller who steals the customer or reacts aggressively to technical difficulties.

What is the use of 7 years of programming experience, if you do not know how to give support and have no education?

But ok, thanks for sell me a horrible product, without support and where i need reset my PC, i lost the program.

Grab a little money that steals from customers and will study methods to improve your program. Maybe a system of MAC address reset by the site, so the client can move your program, can even limit the 1 or 2 moves per month, have you ever thought legal? It would be more honest of you. But surely you've thought about it with 7 years of experience right?

And give me a -3 points of reputation only because i ask help in your thread, exposing the fails of programs? Nice kids attitude.

And about the account, i don't have give you permission to talk my username here. This username contain my personal name and others peoples can find me with this in my personal social media. Please, do not tell your customer's personal information out there. It's unethical. And if i have one, two, three or more account here, is problem of administration and not you's. Use your time to bee better instead of trying to hurt others just because they do not know how to act like a man.

Thanks so much for NEVER help me and stolen my account.

Nice Crypter but the Developer (CYBERSEAL) and his support (BREAKER9691) are the worst support i ever met. When you need support, they treat buyers with disdain and use coarse words like, "IDIOT" , "DUMB", "STUPID". They blocked me and disabled Skype comment because i asked simple newbie question. They fail to realize that not every buyer is Rookie or a professional hacker. Sometimes, they refer you to Google when you need support. I paid to you not Google; i paid to get HELP and not INSULTS. Treat your Customers with respect or else i post screenshots of how you rain insults on me, i dont care if you ban my license.

1. Chill out
2. Its very good crypter and support good too

If you ask stupid questions you will get stupid answer...

many people ask awfully stupid questions that are very easy to fix them yourself

I'm sure that 99% of the problems that customers are facing are caused by themselves (they do not check TUT Vid and they dont read how to use this program + they have no idea what they are buying and how to use this)

Support 9/10
Crypter 9.5/10 ?

i can already see why i called you an idiot because you clearly deserve it. If i tell you multiple times to fallow simple instructions and you are too dumb to do it and even refuse then yes you are a idiot. Excuse me for sending you to google to disable your antivirus cuz someone smart like you uses crypters with antivirus turned on.Maybe i should have done all the work for you while you sit back and relax your lazy nigerian ass so you can call it good support. The crypter requires more than 2 brain cells to operate so stop wasting my thread space and do some IQ test sometimes, you`d be surprised when you`ll realize the problem is in front of the monitor. You want me to apologize while you come here threatening me.I treat customers exactly how they deserve, and you are part of the 5% that are brain dead and deserve such treatment and if you think ill take shit from you for $40 think again, others know i have good support and always help them when they have a problem and the fact that 50% of my sales come from recommendations should give you an idea so if you are one of those guys who think that good support means that ill do all the work for them move long and buy something else cuz you`ll be in the exact situation like this guy, thank you and he is honest because he says what he is thinking,i dont know how often he said to me idiot,and i am still alive.

the important thing is i learned so much from him about crypting.and its true if you watch the perfect detailed tutorials,and if you not an idiot,you do not need the suport.and its true i was an idiot because,every 5min i asked for suport,and he told me idiot watch the tutorials,and guess what?he was right,but he helped me always.i understand how dificult it is to suport hundreds of costumers.

i can make 1000 videos for you, you will watch all of them with your eyes closed like you watched my video tutorial and didint bother to pay attention even for 1 minute to see the rats settings then you were wondering why your njrat make black boxes, same as with fud results please dont renew your licence ?

Hey Cyber, this is the guy that was messaging you on Skype around 2am, my messages are no longer sending?

Tbarker688 - December 22, 2017, 10:42 am

Purchased the product(lifetime) yesterday and I am getting good results.
Best crypter around but the only thing I would like to see in future updates is a built-in scanner.

Haarp1009 - December 22, 2017, 3:25 pm

Hi bro i need crypter. U add lan spread ?

Silent Orchestra - December 22, 2017, 6:21 pm

This product was a little trouble understanding at first but once you watch the video you will understand! Vouch brxib - December 23, 2017, 3:59 pm

I love this crypter, i renewed to lifetime its awesome its always FUD.

it used to have one , but now all av scanners are down ....

breaker1911 - December 27, 2017, 6:47 am

for everyone who doubt about the quality of the crypter, here the result, Norton is abug, its opened a webrowser, and i've manually checked, its BYPASS IN RUNTIME.
DONT HESTIATET TO BUY HIS PRIVATE STUB, ITS FUD AF

Chasnechok - December 27, 2017, 7:29 am

Hi guys, will my project be detected after running it? (if I use this cryptor) its depend on what you protected, but mostly its will bypass everything trust this crypter and its won't let you down.

Chasnechok - December 27, 2017, 7:32 am // solved, I think I will buy it like a present for NY))

breaker1911 - December 27, 2017, 7:43 am

updated scan result (SCANTIME / RUNTIME) this's from private stub
