Be aware of this user, he is trying to sell his account. Avoid deals at all costs. Profile link <https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=1743548>

The GRim - October 31, 2014, 11:04 am

You should include his profile link and put images in spoiler.

Thanks for taking your time to report him :).

c x y k - October 31, 2014, 11:05 am

Please post your evidence within spoilers, as it goes off my screen and most likely other member's screens.

u?op ?pisdn - October 31, 2014, 11:05 am

REKT, don't forget to add his UID and link to his profile.

Samesies - October 31, 2014, 11:06 am

Let @factor8 deal with this. Let's see what his judgement call is. Should also put multi-accounted just in case.

Aceman - October 31, 2014, 11:27 am

Well done on baiting him and nice job on the community alert.

Stusders - October 31, 2014, 11:38 am

Why would anyone buy such a shit account? Nice bait though.

A Fox - October 31, 2014, 11:40 am

King did say he was 13, so he probably wanted the money to buy some barbie dolls.

Stoke - October 31, 2014, 11:44 am

Good catch, very surprising that he'd try something like this.

Eagerly awaiting his response to this.

I was messing around

OP that is my email and paypal indeed but I do not use any off-site websites except GeneralMD, Code Gamer & BA and a few others if somebody scammed you in my name that isn't my fault, nor my problem tbh.

I am using this as a pointer, if I were going to sell my account, how much apparently were I going to sell it for?? if I were that kind of person why would I not scam for a lot more money than some shitty forum (what you're making out I sent you it on) and not lose my account anyway? that is just a pointer, also my paypal has received no money?

No one would use your name AND your paypal email. Shut the fuck up you piece of shit.

Maybe somebody who hates me would? downy.

Edit: I can see on the screen you haven't provided all of them messages between you and 'Castiel' at the bottom, inb4 you're paying him to set me up or some shit

420 Blaze It - October 31, 2014, 12:54 pm

Detective as always, nice work there member! Seems like you didn't go rogue.

brian188246 - October 31, 2014, 12:57 pm

King, people don't expect to be set up, the member had no reason to put your PayPal, unless it was you.

nique ta mere - October 31, 2014, 1:09 pm

After doing some research I can see why he's mad, it seems I have an imposter, who scammed him.

What kind of evidence would there be without my paypal? non.

nique ta mere - November 2, 2014, 11:33 am

OP I see you've been online and not responded to my last message? I'm guessing that you didn't show the rest of the chat because whoever 'Castiel' is asked you to send it to a different Paypal or some shit? I'm doing this because I want this shit sorted out.

I would like a staff member to do an investigation into my account and when nothing comes up this closed, because I would never sell my HF account.

He's either setting me up or actually got scammed by an imposter but either way, it's nothing to do with me.

Everything you provided in your proof is public knowledge.

Karnaugh - November 2, 2014, 11:37 am

Wow, really good job you did there. #Thembait!

Lifeless? - November 2, 2014, 11:42 am

I really believe this is fake, King would never sell his account. From knowing him for a while I know it means a lot to him.

Wait, were you actually trying to buy an account @ OP?

Thanks for posting.

I wish more people would read through the thread before posting.

(Nov 2, 2014 12:43 PM)Class Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Wait, were you actually trying to buy an account @ OP? I actually did some research into this and it seems he was, and my imposter seems to have scammed him. He's made a scam report against the user on the site.

I'm guessing that is why he has posted here (trying to get me banned or something) I have done nothing wrong though.

I have to say OP has provided some proof which indeed makes me look guilty but I wish people would read through the thread...

Allison Argent - November 2, 2014, 1:47 pm

I hate to say it but:

King/random person (I know his IRL but not leaking) ; Why would he sell his HF account? I'm pretty sure with having this kind of reputation within a forum it would be easy enough for him to make an E-book or offer a product or service in which would probably earn him more than $75.

No offence Peble but you could have just sat there wasting your life away by using Inspect Element, only real way in which to find out whom is telling the truth is to have Factor8 or Omni look at this (I don't know if there are any other admins ; if so I'm sorry).

Note: You screenshotted a post in which I'm guessing was on a public thread within HF? (Correct me if I'm wrong), Isn't it possible to ask the owner from the other site (seeing as you're unable to crop out a HTML link? Taking into account the IP address they have along with the one Omni has? would this not resolve your issue or will you be under the protective answer of "Well he could be using a VPN/proxy", If that is your reply however then I suggest you just stick to those forums because they have no way a relation with these forums.. (Seeing as that site sells HF accounts either way).

What he said ^ But I actually think I have an imposter who scammed him (because of his scam report on some guy who scammed him for a hf acc)

So OP decided to post here blaming me.

I see I have a -3 on him from a while ago, he could be on a personal vendetta but idk tbh :P

?een - November 2, 2014, 1:55 pm

There is just no possible way King could have looked into this and found the proof that OP was trying to buy his account as fast as he did without being signed up for VIP HF. It's pretty obvious King never intended to sell his account, but did intend to scam members on the other site. Still a really LQ thing to do.

Vanilja - November 2, 2014, 1:56 pm

Well done OP.

We can see the ban hammer coming soon I think, or who knows. Let the admins handle this.

Are you stupid? I used a fake email to register, then don't ask you to approve it or anything and searched up his name, checked his threads and found that he's been scammed.

That took me around 30minutes, but I couldn't have done that in a day?

You must be slow in the head if you wouldn't be able to do that.

That's what you were worried about defending yourself on? Not the fact that you did some shady ass shit?

Lmao nigga fuck out of here.

Socrates???? - November 2, 2014, 3:12 pm

Wait it would be really easy to frame someone. Find account that has posted email in give away. Create 2 accounts on another shitty forum. Pm one account pretending to sell HF account. Send email that was found in giveaway thread. Open community alert...

>>Profit??

Is there something im missing in this thread cause ill i see is, pms on another forum and his paypal email in a give away?

I was thinking this too, but why me? I see I've -3'd him in the past but -3 isn't something you'd go through all this trouble for (unless of course his aim is to get me banned which it may or may not be...)

I think I have an imposter pretending to be me selling my HF account tbh.
