Thread: Cannot Post Links Due To Needing 20 Posts, Yet I Have More Than 800 Posts?

Demoralise - November 1, 2014, 12:33 am

Is this some kind of glitch? Is anybody else experiencing this?

Dr. Manhattan - November 1, 2014, 12:33 am

You need to be a upgraded member also mate

Wetty Fap - November 1, 2014, 12:34 am

I used to be able to post links and images fine and now i'm having this problem too, damn.

Demoralise - November 1, 2014, 12:36 am

Perhaps they have now made it a membership only thing, or else it is just a glitch.

I could post both links and images before...

Demoralise - November 1, 2014, 12:48 am

If it is the case that you have to be upgraded as well then the wording should be 'and' instead of 'or'
But it is worth upgrading anyways, lots of cool features.

Ad?m - November 1, 2014, 1:12 am

Wait, so you all can't post links or images in your post anymore? That's pretty bad if you have to pay just to do that lol

Sounds like Omni is desperate for money this month. Let's hope this is just a bug of some sort. Otherwise that is very cunt-like of him.

Soon he'll have to change the name of the forum to either "ReputationForums" or "UpgradeForums".

First it was allowed to post link, after alot of regulars posted screamers on threads.

Thats one reason.

Or he can leave it at Hackforums and you can just leave?

Well, I can't post them either.

Its probably some kind of bug, and it will also probably be fixed later.

-Chippy - November 1, 2014, 4:41 am

Its fucked up. What next " Upgrade to make account ". Amazing.

'Palladium - November 1, 2014, 4:44 am

Factor8 (staff) said when Omni gets on he'll fix it.
