Well, as some of you may know I use to be the king of fake GB proof back in Ghosts...

Would people buy my fake proof if I made it for AW?

Ifinger - November 8, 2014, 4:30 pm

LOL The only thing plugged into the monitor is the power supply, that is so easy to tell it is fake.

EDIT: They are all level 1, another easy way to tell is fake as hell.

Not to be rude but GBs are done in private matches were everyone is level one

I honestly can't tell if you're trying to be stupid or not...

Either way, that monitor was plugged in, and had an xbox connected to it at the time the picture was taken Imfao.

Shit on me looks a little lower in its box compared to the others. Other than that it looks good.

The names on the bottom are lower than the ones on the top. First thing I noticed.

Make some AW proof please Mark, but this time do it for 1v1, 2v2, 3v3, and 4v4 too ;)

I'd buy all of your packs, as they truly are amazing.

TheDoxer - November 23, 2014, 6:23 am
