Thread: Looking for a Team for Slayer / Team mate for Team Doubles MCC

Damage Inc. - November 8, 2014, 11:16 pm

Current GT is Beast on LAN but I might make a new one just for MMC

I'm mainly going to be a Team Doubles guy but since Slayer will be the only ranked I'm currently looking for a team to play with and make ranks

Not exactly sure how good I am at Halo anymore, but I would be down. My gamertag is Achiever.

I was a 50 in Halo 3 in every playlist except for SWAT (such an unfair playlist with my moderate-connection). I will be more than happy to play with you. I'll probably be purchasing an Xbox One within the next few weeks, I may be a little late to play, but I'm not too shabby at Halo =P.

Ready to play some good people, run FFAs most of the day, and just grind hard in Match Making

Not this noob Pretzel. Huge squeaker, and screams into his mic every time he does or doesn't quad shot someone. Don't play with him. I've seen his streams on assassins creed and he threw his last controller out the window
