Thread: Brothers of Halo :: 100% Halo 4 Competitive Montage - Edited by Veto

Ciutchism - November 10, 2014, 2:55 am

After multiple attempts falling through, welcome to our 100% competitive Halo 4 Montage. Featuring gameplay by Clutchism, Graphic, and Warrdd. Edited by Veto. Every clip is using competitive settings. Most of these clips are against some of the better halo players online at the time. Multiple shoutouts from Ghostayame, Gandhi, and Diesel. A few clips have the AGL logo at the bottom, that is because these clips were performed by Warrdd at the AGL 8 event during the tournament. Thank you to so many people. We will be playing the Master Chief Collection starting Tuesday! Remember to Like, Subscribe, and Share our montage!

Although I despise every aspect to halo 4, really nice gameplay man! And just a little reminder, only 15 hours till MCC ?

I love it. I hate H4, but the gameplay is phenomenal. Great work! I always felt like BRing and sniping was so much easier on H4.

Can I ask why you are grave digging trash threads?
