Thread: Found a tiny spelling mistake \(Nothing big at all\)

Regulus - November 11, 2014, 8:33 pm

Hello there HF. So i was checking this out here as i'm soon gonna upgrade to EP1C:

<https://hackforums.net/go3p1c.php>

And i found a small small spelling mistake, don't really know who to contact regarding this so i'll make a thread here and hopefully some staff or something will see it. I know it's not a big mistake but i was just gonna notify you guys so you know and so you can change it if you want to :)

The spelling mistake is:

Can be found here: <https://hackforums.net/go3p1c.php>

I'm pretty sure it's supposed to be "with" instead of "will" there. :)

I don't think no one thought about it and i don't think no one will ever think about it and care about, but oh well just wanted to tell. :)

The upgrade pages are being updated, I am sure this will be solved shortly.
