Thread: [\[No Work/Service Involved\] L33t or Ub3r Upgrade \(32nd Member Upgrade\)](#)

Ramsay448 - November 18, 2014, 1:31 am

So it's come the time for me to Upgrade another Member. It's been a while since I Upgraded the last one, so this one would be a nice touch. ?

I'm like everyone else who asks for Forum Posts or help with any Projects. Just tell me why you deserve it, that is literally all you have to do. I'm not expecting a full paragraph, but I've been around and Upgraded long enough to identify bullshit or stupid reasons ?

Answer these Questions, otherwise I wont pay attention.

What can Ub3r do for you?

For the love of god tell me you're approved for Ub3r (PM proof):

If I check you're given Rep, have you been a cunt as a L33t Member?

I'll keep this running until midnight tonight (GMT), so you have 15 hours before I decide.

Good luck ?

EDIT: The winner is BoX! Congrats to the winner, and to everyone else, better luck next time, but look out for my further upgrade contests!

Nope, not considering you at all since you didn't answer the question.

What have you contributed to this Forum?

I've given two programs in the past and i have helped Members who needed 'Hacking' and Whitehat help. I try to contribute as much as i could.

What can Ub3r do for you?

I've been wanting Ub3r for a long time, but i have other priorities to take care of. Ub3r gives me more opportunities around the forum especially those sections that Ub3rs are only allowed to post.

For the love of god tell me you're approved for Ub3r (PM proof):

It such a long time that i have been approved for Ub3r, i think i have deleted the Approval Bot's PM. But i can honestly tell you that i am Approved.

If I check you're given Rep, have you been a cunt as a L33t Member?

If you check my rep, if you are worried about Poisonknifes rep you can always PM me and i can explain, but when i first joined the forum which was a long time ago, i gravedug a thread, which i didn't know what grave digging means before.

What have you contributed to this Forum? O gave alot of free shit away. After 5 years of being here on hackforums its still the best place on internet:)

What can Ub3r do for you? After 5 years it might be the time to do this upgrade. I got scammed alot so this might make me more 'trusted' so people wont scam me anymore :) its really hard for a l33t to show people that im here to help them. I do not care about post count or rep or whatever. Everybody gets the same from me. When i find something new i immediatly post it on hackforums. Hackforums is a really nice place where people not only come for hacking. People also get help wih personal life. People who are behind a computer screen are more open to you then when they are in front of you. So u can give people honest help

For the love of god tell me you're approved for Ub3r (PM proof): yes i have the proof. It has been a year ago since i requested ub3r approval. Omni said yes. If you want me to re-request it thats fine.

If I check you're given Rep, have you been a cunt as a L33t Member? Nop. Only to those who scammed me :(

Yea please recheck the Ub3r approval. I've seen that the upgrade system is fully automatic now, that might have changed.

I've contributed with my knowledge everytime it's required when i've posted over these years i've been on here.

What have you contributed to this Forum?

I like to think that I help anyone when I can. If there is something that someone is having difficulty with and I believe I have the resources or knowledge to help them, I usually do. There's not much proof of this as I usually communicate via PM, but I guess some things are reflected in my rep. Aside from this, I have contributed a few threads too:

What can Ub3r do for you?

I don't really have much time on my hands nowadays, due to school and in-real-life commitments I have, and therefore don't have a job currently and find it hard to support myself with "luxuries". As an UB3R I would feel that I have earned something that's somewhat notable on HF. I hope that it would build up my trust slightly on the forum, too.

For the love of god tell me you're approved for Ub3r (PM proof):

If by any chance I win, I'll show you PM proof that I am accepted for UB3R.

If I check your given Rep, have you been a cunt as a L33t Member?

Personally, I think I have been a fair member. I believe I've only given out about 2 neutrals and I try not to get involved with things that would bring negativity in one way or another.

AceRiven - November 18, 2014, 5:32 am

What have you contributed to this Forum? I contributed a lot like giveaways, tutorials in my previous l33t hackforums account but it was hacked.

What can L33t do for you? I can make the forum better by helping hackforums users.

Electrolytes Ub3r Upgrade Application

Before I start, I would like to congratulate you on 32 upgrades! That's insane you are a real member of hackforums, thanks for giving back!

Name:
Ty / Electrolyte

About you:

I am 17 years old, I grew up in a small town in Alberta, Canada. I love going on HF on my spare time and browsing the forum. Snowboarding is my favorite sport, along with hockey and football. I currently am attending my senior year in high school and hope to major in Instrumentation engineering and technology.

Reasons why I deserve to win:

I am active which can be shown through my posts / threads within HF, I'm helpful which can be shown by my tutorials and help services within the ratting / keylogging section of the forum. I have a great and funny personality and I can make anyone's day brighter, By receiving the Ub3r upgrade I am able to help others in the Ub3r / Upgrade only section and in the regular sections because I find Ub3r users have more respect. I have a good reputation and always try to make my posts high quality. I have provided graphics for users if needed and I've helped one of my friends shops by helping advertise for it. Unfortunately I am not financially fit at the moment so it would mean a great deal to me if I won seeing's as how I can not purchase it myself. I really hope I get a chance to show that I am worthy of the Ub3r user group and I wish the best of luck to all the others that entered.

What have you contributed to this Forum?

Let me first start off by telling you about my self.

My real name is Mika, I live in the Netherlands and I'm 15 years old.

In the couple of years I've been here I've learned so much.

My grammer has also improved so much that I'm one off the best in my English class.

I've also learned a lot about computer hardware and a lot of general topics.

Now coming back to computer hardware, I'm very active in the Computer Overclocking and Hardware section (you've probably seen me around the section before).

I try to help out wherever and whenever I can whether that is over the forum, pm or even skype.

I currently have almost 2400 post's in the Computer Overclocking and Hardware section and everyday that'll be more.

What can Ub3r do for you?

The fact that I can give my friends and other friendly people a +3 would make me happy.

Also I'd like to have access to some of the ub3r only 3p1c features.

For the love of god tell me you're approved for Ub3r (PM proof):

Spoiler \(Click to View\)

If I check you're given Rep, have you been a cunt as a L33t Member?

I've only been an cunt if someone really pissed me off.

I'm usually quite a friendly member, so I don't expect this to be an problem.

My last words:

Thank you so much for giving us the opportunity to win such an awesome price!

And good luck to everyone whose going to be entering this contest!

Madcow12345 - November 18, 2014, 3:27 pm

Hello, thank you for the opportunity to win an upgrade, I think I should get the upgrade because of what I have to offer to the community as a whole. I have an extreme amount of knowledge in the field of business which seems to be what this board fundamentally runs off of. I have slowly been starting to share my knowledge with members within the Website Construction section. I plan on writing several ebooks in which I discuss various business topics in which from what I have discovered within HF so far could benefit the community as a whole and make whoever uses them correctly very wealthy. My main point about bringing up my plans for writing ebooks about business and various methods is this. I will never EVER charge for the books that I write as I don't believe that you should charge a price on information and that it should be shared freely within the community. That is only one of my plans. I also plan on launching an e-commerce website for my Local store/Pawn shop. I receive a lot of really awesome things in my pawn shop and the members of HF may find them interesting. There will be a permanent 15% off discount for the HF community only as it is the only community I belong to and even though I've only been here a few days it has been very welcoming. I also have extensive knowledge in law (have a degree) and have also been sharing little bits of that within the website construction area as that is where I started about the legalities of projects that members here are looking into starting. I have extensive investing information that ties into my business knowledge that is also going to be shared with members here. Basically I have the plan to extend all of my knowledge on the world of law investing and business into the community here aswell as anything else I learn while I am here once it catches my interest it will be shared with the community to better it aswell. I am a high quality member who will have a relatively low post count as I don't post just for the sake of seeing my number go up on the sidebar of my post. L33t will give me the opportunity to get my name out there in the community better as I can get rid of this stupid username and start building a brand of information and the motivation to get much more done around here on these forums.

Again thank you for the opportunity.

Sorry for the long read but I felt the need to be thorough.

Ramsay448 - November 18, 2014, 3:59 pm

This Competition is over. I'll PM the winner in the morning. Best of luck to everyone.

What have you contributed to this Forum?

What can L33t do for you?

Well, First off this community has given a lot to and so I have repaid by learning scripting through several forums and have made a tutorial here. I collected many netflix accounts and posted a free giveaway here. Gave around 100 netflix accounts. That's all for now will be contributing more in the near future.

L33t will enable me to join groups and read wider range of informative threads so that I can post my own thread.

EDIT: Oh this is a 2014 thread! Still if you still giving away a l33t upgrade and you think I deserve it then ... Do the magic sir

What can L33T do for you? First of all I would like to present myself. My name is Jack irl and I'm 16 years old, and live in Denmark. I've always wanted to see the experience being L33T from the beginning when I joined HackForums, it was so nice to see other members. I feel like upgraded members is gaining more respect because of many repwhore, and every time I post in giveaways/contests, people pick the L33T / Ub3r first, it's like the most of the HF users here is a repwhore and they respect only upgraded members, I also wish I could get more respect. I want to be L33T for this reason: I want to Neutral , and give positive. I've always wanted to become L33T, and I would be happy if I win this, so I guess that's why I wanted to be upgraded. I always post HQ posts, and help many people out here HF and that's why I think I deserve it, I don't say that I deserve it more than anyone else, but I think that I've done many things that helped many members out, so I really hope you find me as the one that deserve L33T.

What have you contributed to HF? <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=4729118> This is what I've contributed, and it's something you only can use one time, and it will be rarely to get. I will contribute more in the future. I'm busy with school and exam. ?
