Thread: [\[GDI\] Beryl theme - Blue | Gaming | Overview](#)

Ashlanfox - November 21, 2014, 9:28 am

Hi guys,

I've been working on the Beryl theme for a week or two and I'm really proud of it. Full GDI, no themebase. Still modifying it, I will release it in a week or so :)

Controls:

- Arrow button (Red, Blue, Green)
- Panel (Red, Dark, Green & Curved)
- ProgressBar (Blue or Green)
- Top controls (Hide, Max, Close)
- ComboBox (Blue, Red, Green & Transparent)
- Gold button
- GroupBox
- TextBox (In progress)

The word "Professional" and that theme does not go well together.

2/10.

It might look weird as I'm showing some controls which aren't fitting well with the picture. I'll try to make it look better, thanks for your reply :)

Nice to see you playing with the GDI namespace looks like your getting the hang of it..

And ignore those idiots they used to be cool before they start being complete twats.. And not even bothering to help anyone anymore rather just troll because they literally have nothing better to do.

Keep it up looks good to me for a personal theme, If you need help with anything just holla in this section but again ignore the "twats" who can code, they are just bitter these days for some reason.. fuck em :)

GDI isn't a namespace, just saying...

You seem mad, you wan't to talk about it?

To be honest the theme looks alright if you compare it to the other game launchers, I mean I wouldn't use it in a application, but in a game, I guess because everyone uses this style for games.

PM me, you seem like you have problems you want to get off your chest.

Please move to the appropriate section for those kind of problems.

I'm 31 bring it on son :)

But please can we stay on topic about the GDI and theme? (less trolling?).

Personally I'm not really a fan of the controls, but I do like the form. gj. :P

TheDeceptionist - November 21, 2014, 5:26 pm

It's an excellent theme , if you are using it for game launchers.

Tidas - November 22, 2014, 4:46 am

Pretty ugly theme, tbh. Not trying to be a downer, but just saying what I think. Some parts look okay, but others are just not fun to look at. The progress bars and background of the form are what kills it the most.

SaketSaket - November 22, 2014, 11:34 am

Nice attempt. You did it without themebase that's better.

Honestly, I don't think it's that bad at all... could be better... but then again what couldn't? ;) Thanks for sharing OP!
