Favorite moment would probs have to be in HS DxD when Issei gets powered up like a million times after they threaten to shrink Rias's boobs.

That show actually gave me aids-cancer, but i did enjoy the plot despite all the "OPPAI" talk.

I think it's decent but could have done without the back breaking bust sizes and rapey protagonist. It is, however, something i would have obsessed over last year - which i did.

Toonami - November 21, 2014, 9:20 pm

That's really hard to say. I mean, I would have to break it down into genres because they each accomplish something different. For example, in a SoL anime it's the moment with the greatest feels, an action anime it's the part with the most epic action scenes, etc. I'm too lazy at the moment to go through my list and pick out one from each genre.

The only thing that really stands out to me is when Goku turns super saiyan for the first time and destroys Frieza.

When Gohan was fighting Cell with his Kamehameha and Vegeta shows up in the back and helps save the day. The music and just everything lining up was one of the most unforgettable moments of my childhood.
