Added him on skype and ordered 10 spotify accounts. I'm already waiting an hour since I paid and he only responded with that he was "away" and he asked for my HF profile.

Really suspicious because everytime the other party doesn't immediately deliver, they are most likely scamming. But since this dude has so many vouches, I am waiting till he says something back first. But this looks very suspicious.

Four days later the message hasn't been open, I understand being busy but if thats the case automatically run a check on the accounts in the database it's quite simple so the ones that are sold are not already "free" type accounts without premium. Regardless I await a response when the seller is free.

wezlyons - January 15, 2015, 8:49 am

Bought 10 accounts Spotify accounts from Pledge last month and all 10 have now reverted to free accounts.

I didn't want to post this on here as I was happy to let him sort it out but quite frankly the service you receive from him when you have a problem is very poor.

It's now 4 days since I alerted him to the problem and in that 4 days I've had to two messages off him.

One to tell me to prove I bought the accounts off him and another to try and wrangle his way out of honoring the warranty by claiming he was running a shop with someone else.

I have messaged him with the entire transcript of our conversation via pm as well as linking him to where in this thread I vouched for him and also pointed out that he repped me after buying the accounts

I have also sent him a screen shot of the paypal transaction.

Still nothing.

mr.lollo14 - January 15, 2015, 10:44 am

As wezlyons up there i bought a pair of account for netflix (4th Jenuary)..and now they didn't work..

I sent 2 messages on Skype without receive an answer..

When you buy an account, this one is the account of another person, and when you will see a movie or another video, this user will see that you are watching something with his account, so he will change the password and you will be out!

There is no way for have accounts for lifetime, you are paying for something that is generated with a bot that you can find in a lot of forums, and the only way, if Pledge would be gently is to ask and receive a new account but maybe it will works for few times..

Don't waste your money, save them for buy a real account legally..

xcrpk - January 15, 2015, 11:02 am

I have also bought 3 spotify accounts and after 1 month all are free accounts now.

I'm waiting around 1 week for new accounts and still nothing. Asked me 2 or 3 times for new logins and passwords when i asked for my accounts...

moyorules - January 15, 2015, 12:37 pm

there is no such thing as spotify lifetime. i would recommend you all get your money back

xcrpk - January 15, 2015, 12:46 pm

It should renew every month, that`s why it`s called "lifetime".

But it wasn`t

Another One - January 15, 2015, 1:41 pm

The reason why you guys are receiving free accounts is because that method I used to use got patched.

All you've got to do is contact me with proof of purchase and it will be taken care of.

If any problems happens with any of the accounts I hand out contact me and it will be replaced, that's the whole point of the " lifetime " warranty.

As for future and pending orders, I will be home in about 2 hours to take care of all this. I'm done with exams and will now have the needed time to run a successful shop as I was running before.

All my PMs have been checked, working on the skype now.

I will restock the shop after the current orders are taken care of.

He takes time to solve a problem. Which is fine.

PMing you. Bought a Netflix account, login details are incorrect.

Dc0de - January 25, 2015, 2:23 pm

Purchased 3 accounts (2 spotify, 1 Netflix). Netflix no longer working, 1 spotify is now only Free account (these were purchased 1st), and 1 Spotify working ok which was purchased later. PM'd to see if you can fix. How long have you been running the buy 2 get 1 free? Never got a free account, but fixing the two older accounts that are not working would satisfy ;)

Another One - January 25, 2015, 3:53 pm

Taken care of all the issues.

All orders are done.

Restocking the shop as we speak.

Transported - January 25, 2015, 8:31 pm

I will take care of the pending orders once I can, and I will restock the shop after.

Thanks for the sticky, I've restocked the shop and have taken care of the orders.

No, I'd prefer you don't change the information on the account except Spotify accounts.

yash33 - January 29, 2015, 9:17 pm

I sent payment and added you on skype bro. Paid 2 days ago. Still waiting for spotify account.

Another One - January 30, 2015, 3:44 am

Another long day, I took care of all the PMs/IMs last night.

Meaning, if you messaged me I responded. If not, that means I didn't receive anything.

Gen1e - January 30, 2015, 7:45 am

After 3 days I finally got my accounts..He didn't want to refund me. One of the crappiest shops I ever see on HF.

User is mad because he failed to cooperate when needed.

User failed to follow instructions and answer important questions I needed to know in-order to fulfill the order.

The user got what he paid for, the 3 spotify accounts.

The reason why it took 3 days was due to the complications of timezones and him arguing for a refund.

If you're reading this and feel as if I'm sketchy because of his comment I can provide full screenshots of the PM to prove what happen.

On another topic;

I believe there's a few more accounts in the shop that are in-stock.

I've just now got my dual monitors, I will hook them up and start my orders ASAP. I do plan on running a few contests soon so keep an eye out for that.

I did a review of your shop. Nothing else. And I'm not really mad, $6 is nothing to me. Its about principles. And I deliver everything on skype and PMs. If you are too lazy to login to paypal and look for my transaction that's not really my problem, is it? And I even told you how we can beat timezone, "pm me accounts when you have them, here on hf or on skype".

I asked for refund after 72h of waiting, seeing that there is no TOS about this. And you advertise "autobuy" and then telling me every day "wait 6-9hours"....

This is not of any kind scam report or whatever, I still get what I paid for, get this as a positive criticism that you shop needs some work done, and with that I don't mean thread design. GLWS anyway! ?

Hey, for the Netflix accounts will everything work in the UK (without using a VPN)? I ask because when I used netflix a year or so ago some accounts (not yours) would say content not available in your country or something...

Thanks

ThanksNetflix are random countries, I can't guarantee a specific location.
Normally, US.

Ok thanks Pledge, I guess I'll have to look into VPN/Smart DNS for iOS as I want to use netflix on an iPad and have access to all UK/US content.

Once I've worked out how that works I'll buy an account. :)

Closing the shop due to personal issues. I can no longer run this shop until I come back.

I will be taking a complete break off of a HF.

When and if I start the shop again all warranties will be transferred.

All warranties at this point will not longer be honored until I come back.
