I bought a 12 month off of this guy. I paid him $19 BTC last night and he said he would send me the code when he got on his computer. He never did and this morning I messaged him again 3 times and he finally responded and asked for my BTC address to give me a refund. But he never sent the money back and I never got my code.

UPDATE: He actually just PMed me this bullshit:

Doesn't matter if you steal somebody 19$ or 60$ its still stealing.

You probably didn't scam just 2 people.

Even scamming somebody 1$ isn't cool, scam 19 people and you get 19$ for free.

The ammount doesn't matter.

Now.. if only I could put a negative rep XD

Seagulls - November 23, 2014, 12:43 pm

He probably didn't get scammed himself, if he did he would know how bad it feels and not to it to anybody else.

brian188246 - November 23, 2014, 12:47 pm

Yeah too bad you don't have proof and the guy that made the thread has proof .
And so does another guy.
Don't do unto others what you don't want others to do unto you.

I'm sure he can get his account closed if staff sees this because he literally admitted to scamming.
