I'd make something absurd and cool like a bunch of reptiles having fetishes for twintails so they decide to attack the earth, only to be stopped by men who can transform into lolies with huge twintails and superpowers!

I don't have a plot off the top of my head, but all I know is that the plot would start out basic and develop into something big. I've always had the thought in my mind to make a VERY long series, ones that could top Naruto, One Piece, and Bleach.

I've always tried to think outside the box and ask myself: "What do people want to read/watch?"

I had this recurring dream that always continued where it left off when I was a kid, I wrote it down somewhere.. I thought the experience was extremely unique so felt compelled to write what I could remember, thought it might make a great movie someday. Ah, found it, very long so I'll just post a brief amount of it so you can get kind of a picture, heh.

I am walking home when I notice a strange platform hidden by the hill on the island.

I step on it examining the strange markings, and am transported to a hidden chamber

I further explore this cavern and eventually go underwater, the water is so clear

I can make out the same markings on the walls of this tunnel. then I notice the wall in front of me open up and then closes, curiosity gets the best of me and I time the movement with the opening and am transported upward out of the water, I step off onto another small platform and upon stepping there another door opens in the distance.

the room itself is so huge and I can make out a maze of hallways with no ceilings, and in the distance a giant statue.

I move towards the door but when I step off the platform the door quickly closes with a loud thud. Amazed at what I just witnessed,

I find myself at a loss of words and leave the place. later I go back with my girlfriend during the day but the platform that opened lastnight and transported me down into an amazing world of tunnels and strange markings wouldn't work. outraged I kept stomping on it and my girlfriend found this very amusing. Annoyed I leave.

Stopped having the dream for a year or two then it continued again, this time I had a dream within a dream where the statue spoke and introduced himself saying the titans are losing their power and I was guided to the temple for a reason and to come alone to brave the challenge and safeguard the relic they guarded.

Lots of stuff happened thereafter, confronted by evil at every turn while slowly revealing the true purpose of the relics.

lol kind of sounds odd in text but I clearly remember the dreams as being epic experiences I couldn't wait to sleep again to find out what happened next.

In every generation there is a Chosen One. She alone will stand against the vampires, the demons, and the forces of darkness. She is the Slayer.

an anime that seems like pointless filler but in reality each filler continues on with continuity revealing a much darker story hiding within the happy go lucky filler episodes

An anime from the perspective of an evil organization trying to take over everything. At the end, bad guys win.

Chips Ahoy McCoy - November 24, 2014, 4:21 pm

An anime about a boy who is torn between reality/imagination. This boy, currently a Sophomore in Highschool, had discovered posts about "Astral Projection" online while browsing a forum that he frequents. One day, he decides to give it a shot and see what could happen. His attempt ended up in a success. However, while traversing through the Astral Realm he noticed that his "Silver Cord" had vanished. (The cord connecting Reality/Spirituality.) His physical self on the other hand, now in a coma, has to be in a hospital bed 24/7. The reason I picked a topic such as Astral Projection is due to the amount of theories that exist on the internet about it. Say that the boy in the story were to gain access to the Akashic records. (The akashic record is like an immense photographic film, registering all the desires and earth experiences of our planet. Those who perceive it will see pictured thereon: The life experiences of every human being since time began, the reactions to experience of the entire animal kingdom, the aggregation of the thought-forms of a karmic nature (based on desire) of every human unit throughout time. Herein lies the great deception of the records. Only a trained occultist can distinguish between actual experience and those astral pictures created by imagination and keen desire.) And is able to view them in his Physical Body for example.

Genre(s): Psychological, Horror, Action, Romance.

Length: 12 Episodes.
