Lovely thread design! I really love this man thanks for sharing it.

DC Comics - November 29, 2014, 3:26 am

Hey cool design, can i get this please? Thanks.

Nofs.y - November 29, 2014, 7:55 am

It's nice, but these are so un-original.. Everybody is making these nowadays and the only difference? The Colors, Fonts and maybe some detail. Get original people.

Imao it's a free thread design. If I wanted to get original I can do it, but not for free.

Nofs.y - November 29, 2014, 10:00 am

So what you're saying is; It's going to be given away for free so I shouldn't make it look good/put effort into it etc? Yeah.. That's eh.. No.

Yes. It's free for a reason. I'm not going to put hours upon hours for no reason.

EDIT: Your signature gave me a good chuckle. I didn't ask for an opinion. You just trashed a free thread design.

Nofs.y - November 29, 2014, 10:26 am

Well there kinda is a reason, which would be letting the community know what you're capable of doing, what clients can expect when purchasing something. Now, especially after saying "lmao it's a free thread design", "It's free for a reason. I'm not going to put hours upon hours for no reason" you just look like a lazy designer. I've given away free stuff before and at that time I put as much time into those freebies as I would working for a client, people respected me for that. But if you don't want to do that, fine. But Who am I to judge, right? And, where do you see your name in my signature? I don't see it anywhere.. Why do you think that was aimed towards you?? I don't even bother to look who - Repped me

Yes, who are you to judge? You haven't showcased any of your graphics on here, yet you tell people to give up on design (I saw you say that in one of your posts). And it's not like I put this into my portfolio. If you want to keep bickering, take it to PM.

Nofs.y - November 29, 2014, 11:10 am

I don't feel like I need to prove myself in order to give my opinion, I've been interested in and have experience in design myself for a few years. And that was sarcasm but yes you're right, I will stop now. Wouldn't wanna ruin your thread more than I already have. I apologize if I hurt any feelings, or if I was a little bit too rude.
