Hello guys,

Today I would like to introduce you with my newest forum ever made. It's a forum about those people that use FL Studio to produce music. In this forum we will make sure that you'll learn more about FL Studio, giving free FLPs, learning instruments, effects, downloading new presets, Sample Libraries and many more. Please if you know any friend that uses FL Studio don't hesitate to recommend it, also leave a feedback.

Quote>Note: At the moment we are on BETA testing, we will continue developing it. This is my last domain that I had, I don't have too much money to buy another one at the moment.

Just a tip, do not advertise a forum which doesn't have content.

Make sure you don't get in trouble.

I could see you easily getting sued granted you give away free material that's not intended to be free.
