Hi, Eiffel Tower here. So you've setup your crypted RAT and have no clue where to begin to spread. I am here to help you out, I will guide through this journey by supplying you various tips. I will share some of the most popular niches out there, I will share different methods where you will get quick victims. To keep this short, I will mentor you different ways to spread your RAT as a beginner. This service is free and is available to all members. This is a free mentoring service, but make sure you go check out my recently launched premium spread service at my sig.

Requirements:

- Skype
- 50+ posts
- Positive/Neutral Rep

Either post your skype in the comment or msg me your skype if your interested and I will get to you ASAP.
