Thread: Site design and logo -- need the logo asap.

SomeWhiteGuy - November 28, 2014, 2:42 pm

Need two things done here.

I need the whole front end of my new site coded and designed, and I need a logo to go along with that.

I need the logo asap, as I'm already getting a 'coming soon' front page type shit set up.

Budget:

-- $30 for the logo. - no longer needed.

-- $400 for the design - contact me for more information, and to quote me. I don't really have a budget for the design, I just put down a reasonable amount.

Time frame:

-- Logo I expect to be done within 24 hours of you saying you'll make it.

-- As for the site, 1-2 months should be sufficient.

Payment:

-- Logo I will only pay you with PP.

-- Design I will pay you with either PP, BTC or WU. Your choice.

Additional stipulations:

I will not pay you any amount of money until what you are being hired to do is done, period.

Please contact me if you are interested.

Thank you.

I specialize in branding and logo design, you can see my logofolio here.

As for the web design, I would recommend the user Aired.

To contact me add my skype: live:yxkenny or private message me.

As for the design, if you can get a design, from a designer, I can do it in html/css + basic backend

I can setup the coming soon page if you'd like
Something like:

And depending on what kind of site you're making, I could help with that too.

Thanks, but no thanks. I already have a template picked out.

If you can code the front end, by all means contact me. I have yet to find someone competent enough to do so.

I recognize these free templates lol. He's asking you to create something, not to copy something from someone else.

Ah mkay, I was just looking to help out with the construction page.

I wasn't thinking of doing the main web page design really.

Me and my friend have a partnership, front end and back end. WE can do it for you, please contact me via PM and send me your skype and we will start discussions.

NoMemes - November 29, 2014, 6:12 am

Send me a PM what you want the site to be / how many pages and whatever other info you think is needed.
