No poll yet, you're slow noob. :P

I know who I will vote for this time though.

Roger Waters - December 1, 2014, 6:04 am

I am torn between four members who all deserve the award in my opinion, I'm not sure who I'll vote for yet.

Aceman - December 1, 2014, 6:05 am

Voted for Ladax. He constantly creates great tutorials.

Nivarka - December 1, 2014, 6:08 am

I voted for myself, naturally. It would be an honour to have this accolade bestowed upon me.

Mittens - December 1, 2014, 6:12 am

Let's hope Nivarka doesn't get disqualified again. ? Good luck son.

HAX ME IM FAMOUS - December 1, 2014, 6:27 am

Voted for Escrow, was a close call but after what he has done this month I couldn't really choose anyone else over him.

Rigel - December 1, 2014, 6:33 am

Good luck to everyone! Everyone's contributions are important.^^

Robust - December 1, 2014, 6:36 am

Good luck to everyone in the poll. Hopefully no disqualifications this time around. Nivarka has assisted me with HC, overall a very helpful individual, and Escrow has spent a great deal of time on XMPP. They're the two I mainly recognise on the poll. Ladax is a great contributor, ven0m has assisted greatly with MRT too. Not sure about the last personally, but I'm sure they all deserve it.

Roger Waters - December 1, 2014, 6:44 am

I ended up voting for Escrow, he seems like a good guy and I admire his work with the XMPP project.

clark.dll - December 1, 2014, 6:46 am ven0m gets my vote.

Good luck everyone.

Aceman - December 1, 2014, 7:13 am

Honestly I'd be shocked if Escrow didn't win this poll. It's likely that people who don't know some of the names on the poll will be voting for him since he assisted with the development of HF XMPP.

It's still all to play for.

Not everyone bases their votes solely on hard contributions.

Time will tell.

BITW - December 1, 2014, 7:44 am

Thanks op for the thread. I am voting for Nivarka.

gore - December 1, 2014, 7:46 am

Coppersan for his extensive contribution to Innuendo.

No one else on the list that I'd really vote for otherwise.

I'm not a Robot - December 1, 2014, 9:37 am

I voted for Escrow for all his effort with the HF XMPP, Best of luck to all the others.

Yeah that's my point. He got 4% of the votes, even though he contributed more than the rest (when looking at threads).

Thread contributions = You help a lot.

Post contributions = You help a few.

2 cents.

Boza - December 1, 2014, 10:12 am

I dont know him but i voted for Ladax even though it looks like hes not top in the list.

Most people probably weren't aware of his contributions (stated in the OP) mainly because there are only links to the threads and posts for all users. So unless the thread titles were included with the links, most people would not have even bothered to look at the threads that were considered to be contributions. Had better descriptions been put in there of each user's contributions, members would have a better opinion on who they should vote for in the MOTM poll.

h?cker22 - December 1, 2014, 11:11 am

I'm between ven0m, Escrow, and Ladax.
Good nominations.

-zERAI - December 1, 2014, 12:28 pm

I'd like to wish everyone the best of luck winning MOTM.

Glad to hear that people like my tutorials and I'll continue to push more and more outside the subforum.

It seems like I only have 4 votes so far, which doesn't really bother me. I'm happy that I made it here and am able to show my passion towards HF.

Yet again, goodluck to all of you =)

prada ? - December 1, 2014, 12:34 pm

Voted for Escrow because of his extensive commitment to making XMPP possible.

Clapton - December 1, 2014, 12:38 pm

Voted for Escrow<3

Don't really know any of them, but escrow's contributions seemed pretty great.

Good luck guys.

SIM-2015410 - December 1, 2014, 12:38 pm

Its a hard choice, between ven0m and Escrow. Both a really great members that support the forum. But I voted for one of them, and I won't say which. Good luck guys ?

Canon - December 1, 2014, 1:36 pm

Voted for Escrow. The XMPP project trumps all others, imo.

Aura - December 1, 2014, 1:41 pm

Voted for ven0m.

There's only a few people on this forum that really understand what malware removal and logs analysis involves, and these persons will most likely vote for ven0m. Don't get me wrong, Escrow is my bby and the HF XMPP was a big project, but if you compare the HF XMPP to ven0m's contribution in the MRT and what it involves, ven0m's time and effort are worth more than the XMPP if you ask me.

I honestly hope that he'll win this month, but I also wish good luck to my bby Escrow<3

I think that, due to confusion and possible corruption regarding the poll, the votes should be recounted and then subsequently given to Yellows.

Uhhh obviously these people are up in the poll because of their contributions.

I have no idea who half of these people are and whose fault is that? Mine.

I pay attention to a few sections and in those specific sections, I see none, if not one, of these users posting there.

Again, that is entirely my fault (or anyone else who does not know how these members contributed) for not seeing what contributions they have made to HF.

What you need to understand to, is contributions can be made in many different ways. It doesn't always have to be who posted the best tutorial or who can write the highest quality thread... People contribute by spending their time here and helping out users in need. Others give their money away or donate it straight to Hackforums..
