Thread: Could i have been one of the leets banned?

Shammah - December 2, 2014, 6:52 am

Omniscient made a thread saying he banned members because of an incident that happened with accounts. Everytime i login i get the screen where it says, your account may have been closed. I can't access any forum at all.

Please help meh. Thanks.

You have to speak to Factor8 about your account instead of multi-accounting.

Id recommend contacting them, not making a thread.

Fill out a contact form and tell Staff what happened.

Use the contact form, but it looks like you haven't been on for quite sometime if you are who you say you are.

No, the dumps were from 2010.

I think you might have been bannedk/closed for other infringements

The dumps were from 2010, it doesn't mean the user last logged in 2010. Omniscient said the two l33ts were inactive, that's all he said. They don't have to be last logged in 2010. BTW this isn't about eligibility, this isn't some kind of contest to enter. He's just saying he was one of the l33ts closed during this.

Honestly, he's probably closed for inactivity, he's not repfucked and that usually comes with a closed account (not always). Upgraded accounts do also get closed based on their last visit time. Depends what he was closed for.

Then what is this for?

OP is 2009 but also claims to be a 2014 user?

He's merged with a 2009 member for a reason. Unless that was a mistake. IDC what UID he's saying. I can say I'm UID 1 pls give me compensation.

Aah, we had a bit of a misscommunication here.

Aversator - December 2, 2014, 7:59 am

What happened here with all of the accounts closed?
