Hey guys,

Selling an E-book I made on how to win paypal disputes. The product has some very HQ methods, that will surely win you case. There are several methods, with guidelines on how to win each kind of case. All you have to do is copy and paste the information under the quotes, and change it to your liking. All the methods have been tested and are guaranteed to work in most situations. For example, if someone chargebacked you with an unauthorized access case, all you have to do is copy and paste the text we have under that topic in the book.

I've bought a copy of this. It's quite nice but hopefully I'll never have to use it.

It's looking rather promising so far, they actually had to send the buyer ANOTHER email after I submitted the information the ebook suggested. Not vouching for it until I actually win the dispute though.
