Are you too lazy to watch an anime because you're afraid it's bad? No worries! I've seen a total of 175 anime to date and am looking for watching more!

Post an anime you'd like me to watch here, if I've already seen it, I'll give it my honest rating/10. If its something I haven't seen, I'll watch it and get back to you in a few days. (Maximum a week.)

I've already seen Bocu no Pico, and that was must watch/10 so, don't suggest it. Thnx,

Is that the one where the teacher is like, the sensei of a bunch of loli's?

Shouldn't the title be "Fireworks' Anime Service"?
