Thread: [\[ALL USERS\] \$0.20 PayPal](#)

Trust - December 8, 2014, 7:58 am

$0.20 PayPal to all users, upgraded or not.

I feel like I haven't been giving back to the community as much as I used to, so I gathered what I could and now I'm giving it away.

I only have a little bit, so this won't last long.
For that, I apologize.

Just post your PayPal address below.
You can PM me, but I'd strongly prefer if you posted on the thread.

RE-OPENED!!!
Only have enough for twenty users.
First come, first serve.

Fantastic service you're doing, Trust. Thank you for such a great deed. I personally don't need any PP but I would like to show you my appreciation since you aren't getting much.

I personally feel that it's not very special and not that much money, but it's all I have.

Thanks for thanking me, though. It really means a lot and makes me feel like I'm actually helping people. ?

Sent to all.

For all the gratitude you've gave towards HackForums you deserve every bit of success that you receive on here and even a little bit more. I know a lot of people don't say thanks around here so I figured I'd leave you some feed-back saying thanks. Money doesn't always have to be what you give back.. Give back your time, quality, and yourself towards the forum. You've done your job fantastically and you don't need to give back anymore although your giveaway is greatly appreciated.
