So what would you do if you got 1 million dollar, but had to use it all in 1 hour? ?

Bubbles. - December 10, 2014, 2:48 pm

Mr. Fedora - December 10, 2014, 2:52 pm

To everyone saying they would buy a house, you sure you'd be able to go through all that paperwork in an hour?

I was going to say a house but I didnt even think of how long it would take.
A nice car would be my second option

zetza - December 10, 2014, 2:55 pm

Not a house, because I'd have to pay for the shizz afterwards, unless the 1 million would pay me out of that too...

1 million to spend I'd buy...

Insane pc.

2 monitors.

The most expensive wacom tablets.

Another elevated bed.

Food - probably pizza or a nice chicken & bacon sandwich.

A new gaming chair - probably DXracer.

A Rolex watch.

A TV - probably B&O or Samsung.

Some really nice speakers.

An iPhone 5s or 6.

Clothes.

Bose sports in-ears.

Playstation 4.

Then I'd get the rest in cash and go to the nearest club and buy booze for the rest.

I would buy some Brazilian girls, and go to a club. And invest $900k in stocks(that earn at least 10% interest)

Matt Honest - December 10, 2014, 2:59 pm

Go to Amazon, buy a ton of stuff, go and purchase stocks etc etc.

Adium - December 10, 2014, 3:07 pm

I guess the smart thing to do would be to buy $1 million worth of gold during the hour then sell the gold afterwards so that you're not pressured into making silly purchases.

topLevel - December 10, 2014, 3:08 pm

All my "spending" would be investing in companys like Tesla and solarcity, and some good nano tech companys.

MineSQL - December 10, 2014, 3:10 pm

Hacked88939949 - December 10, 2014, 10:57 pm

Buy a house, a car, tons of clothes, a truck. The money would be gone at that point.

hello im me - December 11, 2014, 12:18 am

Just woke up, so many funny answers ?

But some missed the point, you can't put the money in your bank.. you have 1 hour to spend it all on something, so if you put it in the bank it would just vanish ?

muttie - December 11, 2014, 12:28 am

Just buy lands near my city, I would spend 950K buying lands and 50k just to live a normal life for next years until the price of lands gets increased :D

Gold doesn't fluctuate like Bitcoin bro. ?

Bitcoin Billionaire - December 11, 2014, 12:47 am

I'd buy the a Roger Dubuis watch, an Audi R8 V10 and a decent house / apartment (if I could do all the paperwork in a short period of time) and invest the rest into different stocks.

If I couldn't do that in an hour. I would take the money and buy Gold and/or Silver.

Then either sell it or wait for the price to rise a little then sell it and have more then what I started with.

Raptoorr - December 11, 2014, 1:23 am

Assuming a house would take too long to go through, as would anything new like a car, i'd buy:

- A car, most likely a Shelby GT500

- A beastly PC, with a trip monitor setup and a DX Racer

- An Ub3r upgrade, and permitting that, a HF group, i'd probably purchase polymath!

- Invest about 100k in stocks

- Book a flight and a hotel in New York

-If I had time, i'd overpay someone with cash and get them to transfer their house to me quickly!

DuguWudi - December 11, 2014, 2:56 am

Well it'll be tough to do it all in an hour, but should be possible. Go to my nearest dock, find someone who has a nice big boat/yacht and wave some notes in front of his face and buy it. While I do this I'll get Sam to stock up on the courvoisier and cocaine and Terry will have the task of getting loads of sexy ladies to come on a boat party. I'll buy a house and a car, and a few things in order to live.

Then with the rest of the money buy things like gold or whatever for when the hour is up, I can just resell. ?

I would buy alot of chocolate and doritos.

because a house would be too pricey to pay after the 1 hour.

Well ofc invest it all asap into any sort of promising thing and just sit back and enjoy the cash

If I had a mil I'd probably buy a million dollar house and then just sell it and have all the time I need to spend it :)

1 million to spend I'd buy...

Insane pc.

2 monitors.

The most expensive wacom tablets.

Another elevated bed.

Food - probably pizza or a nice chicken & bacon sandwich.

A new gaming chair - probably DXracer.

A Rolex watch.

A TV - probably B&O or Samsung.

Some really nice speakers.

An iPhone 5s or 6.

Clothes.

Bose sports in-ears.

Playstation 4.

Then I'd get the rest in cash and go to the nearest club and buy booze for the rest.

Thats some expensive ass fucking booze lmao.

I would buy a really good sex change and make myself look really realistic and able to have sex with then I would invest a lot into advertisement and buy some cool stuff then once. Spend that million I'll earn a lot for prostitution because is be a realistic female tranny

That above is a joke. Hope I got a laugh from someone to improve their day

I would either buy gold, or bitcoins. After one hour is up, enjoy spending it as you please.
