Honestly I wished I never stopped E-Whoring I was making some nice ass money.

I cam back to it about a month ago and honestly. I just can't seem to to get ANY payments. People saying they will buy, to people asking for them for free.

Never anybody legit. Tried multiple sites, unsaturated and saturated. Just nothing.

I totally agree with you, how did this happen? Probably ewhore newbs never gave pics and now people try to get them for free

The issue is the newbie E-Whores

They never send the promised package to the buyer, which causes them to be very safe on what they buy. This is slowly but surely going to ruin E-Whoring.
