Thread: Imagine if you were repfucked :\)

Grin - December 18, 2014, 9:00 am

Just imagine that.

I would have so many negatives to be proud of. :)

How many would you have?

I would have 124x3, give or take the few reputations that are -2 or -1. Around -372.

My my. The first time I was repfucked, I had -137 total. I've come a long way from that. It was a perfect number because the iOS section is fid=137.

I don't expect this thread to be junked. This is a high quality discussion that is not breaking any rules. As you may have observed, there is some entry level mathematics that most members will understand. This is both educational and practical applications of mathematical concepts. Thank you for understanding.

Well if I got repfucked, I'd probably deserve it. Also a good start to try getting 0 negs :D

It'd really suck, but you can overcome it, so that's that I guess. Not asking to be repfucked though.

I certainly would overcome it. There's nothing more that I welcome than a repfuck. I would asked to be repfucked.

B?ue - December 18, 2014, 9:08 am

I dunno, goes two ways really.

I'd kinda like it because most of my rep is fairly recent, so I'm sure I can get it back again and on top of that, It would push all my negatives onto the last page and provided I don't mess around I can have all the other pages clear :) Also I see some users tend to get a lot of "Noo you got repfucked :(" +1's and +3's but I'm not really known so I doubt I'd get that.

I'd give it a week or two trying to recover, people usually have a bad opinion about -rep'd users (Except for -NyX becuae fucking lol) If im still neg a week or two after I'd probably give up trying to recover from it and just leave lol.

So let's say you got repfucked.

Based on your current stats, you would be left with -6 reputation.

Your neutrals stay, but they don't really matter. It's God's some myBB developer's way of saying L33T's negative and angry opinion doesn't mean anything. Cause neutral means 0. 0 means nothing.

I've been RF'd before. I was a multi and my first account with 200 rep, L33T was repfucked then merged with my current one.

I wouldn't mind at all! I've got no +rep so i'll take any -rep.

drc00k3.14 - March 9, 2015, 10:30 am

I'd only have -6 rep, not too bad. It wouldn't take long to recover.

Rooter - March 9, 2015, 10:42 am

I would get a lot of negative reputation but I also would not mind as I personally think that it would not be too hard to move on and gain some positive reputation back.

Raz3d - March 9, 2015, 11:20 am

Already tried it by mistake, but I wouldn't really care too much. I would be at -12.
