Hey guys! im very new to e whoring, and I have download bluestacks and am currently using the kik method. I was hoping someone could give me a few tips on how to successfully get people to buy pictures. I keep encountering the people who want pic for pic, or say they will buy after I send one. I am getting absolutely no luck at all?. tips will be greatly appreciated!!! thank you guys for your help.

Either find unsaturated sites yourself or buy a book that has sites that a lot of people don't use because they are too busy using KFF.

Search some tutorials, or invest some money in really trusted services of some members here on HF.

You will get there OP, goodluck.

Well the two guys that did a mentoring service both got banned for scamming. I would try asking Optimized for help if I were you but he might be busy since he is getting ready for the real world.
