Vocaroo.com recording of why we should accept you (60 seconds max): My mic is currently messed up and I'm getting it replaced asap so I hope a text response won't effect my chances in a bad way. Well, I'm very fun to play with because I am energetic and very funny. I troll around a lot, but I know when to be serious and when to try my ass off. Also, I am very willing to try new things such as games, or strategies in games or whatever it is.

The above is a picture of Nicola Tesla. He was a genius and an inventor. Although not as popular as people like Edison and Einstein I believe he was just as smart and useful if not even more so. His inventions could of easily brought about a different world in the current day. If only his studies would of reached more people. Things may of been a lot different.
