May you take a look into this thing... willing to pay you with BTC in case you can fix it:

Issue: Portforwarding (does not work as I am on a 4G mobile network in asia)

I tried:

- 1) Bought 143VPN, it connects + opened port in 143VPN
- 2) I stopped windows firewall + win defender
- 3) I used listen.exe to listen to the port

Result:

- a) Machine A (Win7 64bit): Could see the opened port in canyouseeme.org, but only 1 single time. Thought that I finally made it, but after that I could never again replicate the success. Port stayed closed.
- b) Machine B (Win Vista): Could never see the opened port in canyouseeme

My skype: "anon4711"

Anyone who can sort this out, please contact me in skype. If stable success or if you can offer me any RAT setup that is stable and usable (preferred darkcomet if possible), I will pay you 20$ in BTC.

Thanks so much

I had all of this setup yesterday, comp crashed and now I can't get anything to work anymore despite retrying everything twice exactly as I did yesterday. I may be interested in help but I am going to try a few more times to do it myself (I prefer to try/learn than just have the easy option generally) and if not will set up a skype tomorrow :/

Do you do binding also by any chance? I am worried that I will get a decent RAT and then knock it up with binding polopolo - May 7, 2015, 5:57 pm

Hey there, I sent you an email to your email adress on your front page. Since I did not have any answer I guess I should post my question here.

Hello,

I saw that you are doing some RAT mentoring that 's interesting me a lot! as you are mentoring RAT 's I would like to know the following:

1) Since you mentionned you do not provide free services for those who are not old members or contributor of HF forums (which is my case I 'm new) I would like to know how much would be tuitions fees for RAT mentoring? knowing that I m looking for soemone who can teach me all what is mentioned below. (I have sent a message to another HF member but at that point I m trying to see who can fulfill the best my needs.

2) Do you mentor/teach to total noob like me?, (I tried to get familiar with RATS in 1999/2002 (the website provdidig them was astalavista but since I did not find assistance I was not ble to set them properly so I did not get any result...so I stopped...as far as I remember it was something more 1999 with the old Backdoor RAT) And by total noob I mean you reallly gonna have to start really from scratch with me.(no basic knoweldge about coding or of any kind...I, not dumb (did a lot of maths a the beginning of my studies though I graduate from univeristy (not maths or programming sometbhing totally different) now but I m ignorant about advanced computer/software use)

3) I m planning to acquire a crypter to make the RAT not detectable by AV of my family member's computer I m planning to monitor. Are you teaching/ assist in using a crypter which will have been bought from one of the HF member or are you providing one ? If bought from a third party (are you recommending one in particular?) can you give instructions about how to use it?

4) To monitor effectively my family 's member computers (all of them leaving not in my place) I guess I ll need to bind my RAT . I ve read about the DOC exploit.Is this exploit still not detect by AV or has been patched by MS? Do you help or explain how to bind the RAT with DOC files or do I have to get from HF member a software for this purpose? though being a total newbie I think you ll have to explain me how to use it as wel. Do you sell DOC binder or do you teach how to use them(are you recommending one in particular?)?

5)Just to know in general what would be your average availaiblity. I have a lot of work going on for now sbut I guess I can work with you on the mentoring if you accept me as a student on saturday/Sunday and probably Monday European Time. if you will be in vacation at that time and an estimation of how many hours it takes to teach all the above to a total newbie and if all the above is included in your mentoring.

Since I'm new to this forum I 'm not be able to PM you that's why I m sending you this email. I got Skype but before I add you and you accept me I would like to know if you are able to provide me teaching for the mentioned above

I m planning to use Nanocore since from my reading it looks as the best one (though it remains unclear if it has keylogger ...apparently some pluggins provide it) if we make a deal I ll pay you the tuition at the beggining of the mentoring. I m looking for a teacher who is not only going to do for me what I need (that s not the goal and besides that s not teaching) but who is going to explain me how this all stuff works in order that I ll be self sufficient in the future.

I m in Europe so please tell me if you are in aera with hours delay if that s migt be an obstalce to the mentoring program.

Of course I ll be trusting you for real because I thnik we should have to go through Team Viewer and since I m not a pro you could backdoor my computer easily. However I saw you have good vouches so I think you are someone who can be trsutred (saw a thead were a guy was allegedly giving to the community a DOC exploit which was jut a DOC document as other member noticed and it was trapped).

I ll very pleased and honoured to learn from a real pro like you. Wish I had this oppurtunity when I was a student and more time to dedicate to that kind of field of interest.

Would be happy to read from you .

Sincerly yours

A total newbie
